Statutory requirements	Rules and guidelines (non-statutory)	Example words (non-statutory)
Revision of Reception work The boundary between revision of work covered in Reception and the introduction of new work may vary according to the programme used, but basic revision should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • all grapheme-phoneme correspondences which have been taught • the process of segmenting spoken words into sounds before choosing graphemes to represent the sounds • words with adjacent consonants; • rules and guidelines which have been taught • vowel digraphs which have been taught 		No example words are suggested because the selection will vary according to the programme used, particularly where vowel digraphs are concerned.

-tch	The /tʃ/ sound is usually spelt as tch if it comes straight after a single vowel letter. Exceptions: rich, which, much, such.	catch, fetch, kitchen, notch, hutch watch, match, switch, pitch, scratch, witch, patch, twitch

The /v/ sound at the end of words	English words hardly ever end with the letter v, so if a word ends with a /v/ sound, the letter e usually needs to be added after the 'v'.	have, live, give cave, dove, above, brave, alive, glove, drive
Adding s and es to words (plural of nouns and the third person singular of verbs)	If the ending sounds like /s/ or /z/, it is spelt as -s. If the ending sounds like /ɪz/ and forms an extra syllable or 'beat' in the word, it is spelt as -es. Words that end in ch, sh, zz, ss (hissing sounds, tend to have an -es added rather than just an -s). e.g. bush – bushes or fizz - fizzes	cats, dogs, spends, rocks, thanks, catches -s Pockets, rabbits, carrots, sunsets, thunders, winks, drinks, sticks, clocks, picks, bricks, spells, thinks, honks, banks etc -es fizzes, buzzes, hisses, bushes, branches, churches, patches, fetches, busses, misses, switches, witches, scratches, watches, matches, crosses, dresses, bosses, wishes, dishes, crushes, smashes, brushes
Adding the endings -ing, -ed and -er to verbs where no change is needed to the root word	-ing and -er always add an extra syllable to the word and -ed sometimes does. The past tense of some verbs may sound as if it ends in /ɪd/ (extra syllable), /d/ or /t/ (no extra syllable), but all these endings are spelt -ed. If the verb ends in two consonant letters (the same or different), the ending is simply added on.	hunting, hunted, hunter, buzzing, buzzed, buzzer, jumping, jumped, jumper watched, watching, watcher played, playing, player dressed, dressing, dresser crushed, crushing, crusher trained, training, trainer waited, waiting, waiter pointed, pointing, pointer boiled, boiling, boiler wished, wishing, wisher
Adding -er and -est to adjectives where no change is needed to the root word	As with verbs (see above), if the adjective ends in two consonant letters (the same or different), the ending is simply added on.	grander, grandest, fresher, freshest, quicker, quickest pink, pinker, pinkest tall taller tallest small smaller smallest old older oldest big bigger biggest young younger youngest slow, slower, slowest
Vowel digraphs and trigraphs	Some may already be known, depending on the programmes used in reception, but some will be new. The endings -ing, -ed, -er and -est, if relevant, can be added straight on to all the words which can function as verbs or adjectives, except for those in italics.
