

This week, we are going to look at words that have prefixes.
Can you remember what a prefix is?

A prefix is a group of letters added before a root word to alter its meaning and create a new word.

We are going to concentrate on the prefix...

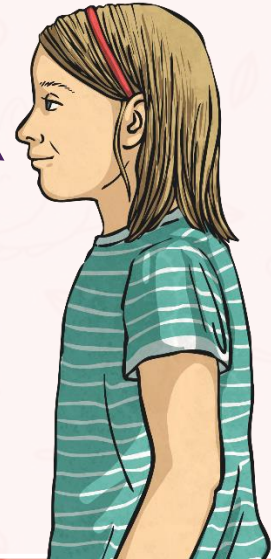

re-

re-

that usually means 'again' or 'back'
e.g. repay

Could you use each word in a sentence?

How did you get on with your sentence work yesterday?

- 1) The children tried to rebuild the lego house that was destroyed.
- 2) The teacher said that we needed to revisit the work we had done on times tables.
- 3) The thief had to repay all the money that he had stolen.
- 4) The whole office had to reapply for their jobs.
- 5) After the flood in the house, my Dad had to redecorate the kitchen.
- 6) It is good for the environment if you recycle all your cans, bottles and cardboard.
- 7) You can reheat your food if it goes cold.
- 8) The class had to retell a story in assembly.
- 9) The restaurant will reopen in April after it had to close.
- 10) We had to redo our work because it was not good enough.
