

SPAG Lesson

Year 3

Write the date and title in your exercise book.

Wednesday 3rd February

Can I add speech punctuation to a sentence?

Punctuation Rules

💬 The spoken words and any punctuation marks go inside the speech marks.

💬 The first word that is said has a capital letter.

💬 A comma separates what is said from who is saying it,

e.g. Bug said, "Hello."

© 2013 abckeechingsresources.com

Can you remember the speech punctuation rules?

Watch this video for a reminder!
<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zvftsbk>

Task: Correct the punctuation in these sentences.

1. Help Bee shouted
2. It's not fair Bee grumbled
3. Where am I Sally moaned
4. My name is Glog Glog said
5. Try this mammoth meat stew Glog suggested
6. Dog, where are you shouted Bee

Answers on the next page – no peeking!

Task: Correct the punctuation in these sentences.

Answers!

1. "Help!" Bee shouted.
2. "It's not fair," Bee grumbled.
3. "Where am I?" Sally moaned.
4. "My name is Glog," Glog said.
5. "Try this mammoth meat stew," Glog suggested.
6. "Dog, where are you?" shouted Bee.

How did you do?

Now post a photo of
your work on class
Dojo.

