Can I write a newspaper article?

- Today is the day when you get to write your actual newspaper article.
- You have a few options: You can do this on the computer e.g. Microsoft word or you can present this neatly on a piece of paper or you can complete it neatly in your book. WARNING- I will send this back if it is not neat enough for your WOW folder! (Time to shine)
- Listen to my feedback from yesterday and make your own newspaper!
- My expectations- You have used formal language, you have tried to use lots of words from the word map (Yesterday). You have varied your sentence length, you have used a range of appropriate vocabulary, all of your photos have captions, you have a clear catchy headline, you have quotes from several people, you have included facts and real information!
