- Involve students, parents and the wider school community in students' learning and development

2. Our guiding principles

St Martins is a happy, safe and caring learning community where relationships are built on mutual respect and everyone is valued.

Within our aspirational environment learning empowers everyone, through hard work and positive contribution, towards independence and a successful future.

The St Martin's curriculum intent is 'shaping successful futures'.

St Martins is like a family because we trust each other, people are kind, helpful and show respect.

St Martins can support us to reach our goals.

4. Planning

At St Martins School, we are committed to 'shaping successful futures' by providing a student centred curriculum that enables our young people to achieve the following:

- Develop skills, attitudes and knowledge to enable lifelong learning
- Be self-aware and manage their emotions and behaviours
- Empower students so they can achieve their individual aspirations
- Work independently and as part of a team
- Make positive contributions and become part of their local community
- To develop life skills, preparing students for adulthood and future opportunities

St Martins planning overviews must be used in order to ensure planning is detailed and well thought out. It is also expected that teachers communicate the planning to the support staff in the lesson.

Curriculum Design

The St Martin's Curriculum has been designed with three pathways in order to provide students with the most appropriate approach and content:

Whilst many students will work within one curriculum pathway in their time at school, as skills and knowledge progress, some students may move between pathways. It may also be appropriate for some students to move to a less formal curriculum pathway in certain subjects or to support their needs.

The curriculum pathways also develop over the phases of the school journey.

Students are baseline assessed on entering St Martins School in Key Stage 3. A suitable pathway is identified using the National Curriculum and their EHCP targets.

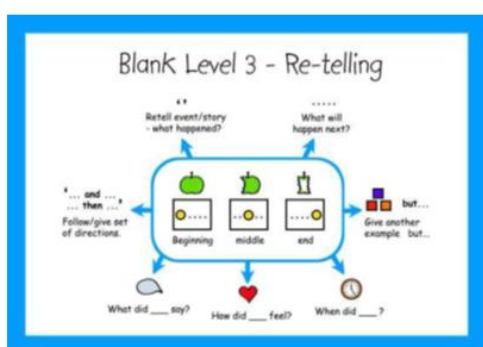

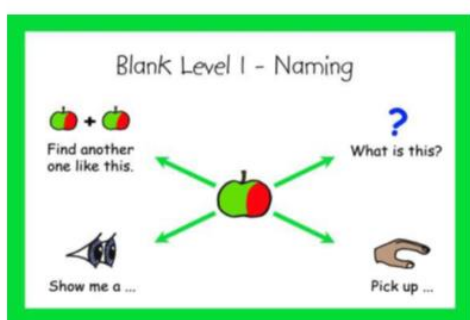

A more formal accreditation pathway is followed in Key Stage 4.

In Key Stage 5, the curriculum focuses on employability and preparing for adulthood.

All students, regardless of the curriculum pathway they are following, study English, Maths and PSHE. They are taught both as discrete subjects and as cross-curricular skills within other subjects depending on the pathway and needs of the student.

Lessons will be planned well to ensure good short-, medium- and long-term progress. All curriculum areas will provide termly overviews with the weekly learning objectives and suggested activities. Teachers will then plan lessons using the Curriculum Overviews. (See Appendix 4)

At St Martins we focus on developing verbal reasoning skills (talking about why things happen and explaining abstract ideas) using the students' Blank Levels. This provides a framework for assessing levels of language that an individual can understand and accurately respond to. It is based on questioning from a concrete to abstract level. BLANK levels will be used to support planning.

Planning, preparation and assessment (PPA) time

Under the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document \(STPCD\), eligible teachers are entitled to no less than 10% of their timetabled teaching time as guaranteed planning, preparation and assessment (PPA) time.

This time must:

- Be part of a teacher's directed time
- Be provided in units of at least 30 minutes during the school's timetabled teaching week
- Be used to carry out PPA – you can't require teachers to carry out any other duties during this time

At St Martins School we allocate the following PPA time for full-time staff (pro-rata equivalent given to part-time staff):

- Teachers – 5 lessons a week
- Subject Leaders and Early Careers Teachers – 6 lessons a week
- Faculty Leaders – 7 lessons a week
- KS Leaders – 9 lessons a week

As we allocate our staff 20% PPA time a week, we ensure that at least 10% of the time is protected and not directed, however the rest can be directed for cover, annual reviews, parent meetings, staff support, etc.

5. Learning environment

When students are at school, learning will take place in classrooms, outdoor spaces, halls, music rooms and ICT suites.

These spaces will be kept safe, clean and ready for students to use them.

They will be arranged to promote learning through:

- › Layout of the classroom and types of furniture to suit the cohort and class group
- › Displays to celebrate, promote and support learning
- › Accessible resources for learning such as books, worksheets and other equipment
- › A seating layout that allows everyone to see the board when necessary and supports the individual's needs and engagement
- › Visual timetables and prompts to support learning and understanding

6. Differentiation

Teaching and learning at our school will take the backgrounds, needs and abilities of all students into account. We will differentiate learning and adapt teaching to cater to the needs of all of our students, including:

- › Students with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND)
- › Students with English as an additional language (EAL)
- › Disadvantaged students
- › Students that are gifted and talented

Differentiation strategies used are:

- › Using support staff effectively to provide extra learning support

- › Using groupings for certain subjects where appropriate
- › Providing writing frames, visuals and word banks

7. Home learning

Home learning, or homework, will support students to make the link between what they have learnt in school and the wider world. It's most effective when done in a supportive, secure environment, with focused time set aside. We understand that some of our students will struggle to engage in school work at home, this can be discussed with families and pastoral teams and a letter will be sent out at the start of each academic year for parents to agree to.

All home learning will be sent home with the students.

Home learning will be reasonable in challenge and length, and its purpose will be clearly outlined alongside each task.

Any necessary equipment or resources will be provided, loaned or made accessible.

8. Marking and feedback

Feedback will clearly explain to students what they're doing well and what they need to do next to continue to improve their work.

At St Martins marking and feedback is frequent, positive and purposeful. Where possible it is completed alongside the student. We try to give immediate positive and constructive feedback, this includes using a range of marking and feedback methods:

- › Clear, incisive feedback.
- › Specific, positive praise and comments.
- › Clear verbal or written guidance for improvement linked to learning objectives/success criteria.
- › Where possible students should be encouraged to respond to the written feedback provided, in purple pen.
- › Annotations to demonstrate the level of independence or support given.
- › Verbal feedback and questioning
- › Live marking
- › Self-assessment
- › Peer assessment
- › Use of EfL to capture practical learning opportunities.
- › Written marking should be completed in green pen.
- › Use of highlighters for the Jet and Ruby pathway to visually annotate students' work, green for greatness and orange for opportunities to improve.
- › Re-drafting and editing sections of work planned in to lessons in response to feedback for the Crystal pathway
- › Modelling of answers to aid comprehension for some subjects (i.e. mathematics)
- › Use of marking for AfL to inform planning to tackle misconceptions from prior learning

Steps to Success

At St Martins we use 'Steps to Success' as a tool to support feedback to students. Steps to Success should include a clear learning objective and link to why this skill will help shape their future.

Example:

	S		H		A		P		E	← SHAPE ← Date ← LO and Why? ← Non-negotiables ← Link to blank levels
S/I/VF/P/OA
LO: to identify target audiences
Why? So we can understand how advertisements influence our thoughts
Non-negotiables:		ABC	abc	sat			.
Can you:	Name	Describe	Re-tell	Explain

Symbols below can be used to annotate work and may be highlighted in the Steps to Success.

S	Support given
I	Independent work
VF	Verbal Feedback
P	Peer assessed
EfL	Evidence for Learning
OA	Objective Achieved

Please see our Marking and Feedback Policy

9. Assessment, recording and reporting

We will track students' progress using a combination of formative and summative assessment. We use ongoing formative assessment, and formal summative assessment at the end of Key Stage 4.

We will provide regular targets for students, and provide termly verbal reports against these at parents' evenings. Students will receive a written report annually.

Please see Assessment Policy

10. Monitoring and evaluation

We will monitor teaching and learning in our school to make sure that all of our students make the best possible progress from their starting points.

Senior leaders, Key Stage Leaders and Subject Leaders will monitor and evaluate the impact of teaching on students' learning through:

- Lesson visits
- Conducting learning walks

- Reviewing marking and feedback
- Termly pupil progress meetings
- Gathering input from Student Voice
- Planning discussions
- Book scrutiny

11. Review

This policy will be reviewed Academy Council.
