Religious Education Policy

Review October 2027

Growing, loving and learning in the arms of Mary.

1. Context of this religious education policy

In the nineteenth century, St John Henry Newman passionately defended the principle that Catholic universities become places where dialogue between academic disciplines was encouraged and celebrated as essential in the pursuit of truth. To dialogue means to reach out to others by actively listening to them.

In our times and circumstances, we strive to extend this principle to our schools, and the religious education curriculum needs to lead the way, offering everyone the opportunity to speak openly and with true freedom so that minds can meet in the pursuit of truth.

Newman said, 'I wish the intellect to range with the utmost freedom, and religion to enjoy an equal freedom; but what I am stipulating for is, that they should be found in one and the same place and exemplified in the same persons.'

Our task is to make that place the Catholic school, with religious education at its heart. (To know You more clearly, Religious Education Directory for Catholic Schools, Academies and Colleges in England and Wales, June 2023, p4-5)

2. The importance of religious education

Religious education is the core of the core curriculum (Address to Bishops' of Great Britain during ad limina visit to the Vatican, Pope St John Paul II, 1992) in a Catholic school. Placing religious education at the core of the curriculum helps the school to fulfil its mission to educate the whole person in discerning the meaning of their existence

A Catholic education is "focused on integral formation of its students and at the same time prepares them for full participation in civic life. It forms the Catholic student as 'both human and a person of faith, the protagonist of culture and the subject of religion'. It teaches subjects with methods proper to them and at the same time imbues the whole curriculum with a Christian outlook. It is established for Catholic students and at the same time draws others to its doors. In short, the Catholic school reflects the apparent paradox of the incarnation that is resolved in Christ: it is both fully Catholic and really a school. Religious education in a Catholic school also bears witness to the same mystery: it is both fully religious and genuinely educational."

(To know You more clearly, Religious Education Directory for Catholic Schools, Academies and Colleges in England and Wales, June 2023, p9)

Aims for religious education

Religious education is at the heart of our school life. We aim to ensure that all pupils will have the opportunity:

- To engage in a systematic study of the mystery of God, of the life and teaching of Jesus Christ, the teachings of the Church, the central beliefs that Catholics hold, the basis for them and the relationship between faith and life.
- To enable pupils continually to deepen their religious and theological understanding and be able to communicate this effectively.
- To present an authentic vision of the Church's moral and social teaching to provide pupils with sure guide for living and the tools to critically engage with contemporary culture and society.
- To give pupils an understanding of the religions and worldviews present in the world today and the skills to engage in respectful and fruitful dialogue with those whose worldviews differ from their own.
- To develop the critical faculties of pupils so to bring clarity to the relationship between faith and life, and between faith and culture.
- To stimulate pupils' imagination and provoke a desire for personal meaning as revealed in the truth of the Catholic faith.
- To enable pupils to relate the knowledge gained through religious education to their understanding of other subjects in the curriculum. (To know You more clearly, Religious Education Directory for Catholic Schools, Academies and Colleges in England and Wales, June 2023, p6)

3. The Curriculum

At St Mary's Catholic Primary School, religious education is based on the Religious Education Directory (RED) "To Know You More Clearly". In line with the Bishop's mandate, the RE curriculum is taught through the Diocesan resource, 'The Way'.

At St Mary's, this curriculum is rooted in our mission, 'Growing, loving and learning in the arms of Mary.'

Our wider curriculum principles of Beliefs, Rights, Environment and Wellbeing (BREW) enables pupils to move from Catholic teaching to Catholic action. Through Beliefs, pupils listen and respond to God's Word; through Rights, they uphold the dignity and voice of every person; through Environment, they care for our common home; and through Wellbeing, they build a community rooted in fraternity, compassion and belonging. The Mini Vinnies, School Council, Action Team and Wellbeing Champions give pupils practical opportunities to exercise leadership in each of these areas.

Beliefs – Dei Verbum asks, 'What does God teach us?'

Our teaching is rooted in Gospel Values, to ensure every child's journey into adulthood is a journey of faith, where their choices in life are informed by their beliefs. Our teachings help children to understand the faith that makes them who they are.

Rights – Gaudium et Spes asks, 'How should we treat people?'

We prepare children to take an active and responsible role in striving for social justice. A safe place whereby important R(S)HE and British Values are promoted. All learners, including the most disadvantaged pupils and pupils with SEND, are provided with the knowledge and skills to participate in lessons with their peers.

Environment – Laudato Si' asks, 'How should we care for God's world?'

To know that God has given us the responsibility to act as stewards of his creation, that we must all act now to preserve God's world.

Wellbeing – Fratelli Tutti asks, 'How should we live together?'

A broad and balanced education, committed to nurturing the whole person through developing children's physical, moral, spiritual and intellectual talents. The school establishes itself as a centre for the entire community, a place for extended services for pupils and families.

In recognition of the importance of religious education in our school, we devote 10% of the teaching week to religious education lessons; not including Collective Worship. In Early Years, the timetable and learning style is more flexible, but teaching of Religious Education is prioritised to give children the opportunity to engage fully with the curriculum.

The Religious Education Curriculum Directory has a clear framework for learning:

- Knowledge lenses

Hear, believe, live and celebrate indicate what should be known by the end of each age phase.

Hear - Engage with the Word of God in Scripture and the Tradition of the Church.

Believe - Develop a deep, coherent understanding of the Catholic faith, the Creeds, and the Catechism.

Celebrate - Experience and understand the liturgical life, Sacraments, and prayer of the Church.

Live - Apply Catholic teachings to moral decision-making, social action, and global stewardship, deeply rooted in Catholic Social Teaching.

Dialogue - Engaging respectfully with the views and beliefs of others.

Encounter - Recognising God's presence in people, relationships and experiences.

- Ways of knowing

Understand, discern and respond are the skills through which children progress and develop their thinking during the curriculum journey.

They are called ways of knowing since they describe the holistic ways human beings experience education: as a growth in understanding, as a creative and critical assimilation, and as a recognition of the application of learning to one's own life. The three ways of knowing are; understand, discern, and respond. (RED p.35)

- Expected Outcomes

Sets out what pupils should be able to know, remember and do in each year group

Pupils are encouraged to grow in knowledge and wisdom in age-appropriate ways. Expected outcomes, as outlined in the RE Directory, provide a pathway for skill development, guiding pupils toward a mature understanding of faith, respect for diversity, and a commitment to living justly. Each age-phase has a prescribed set of expected outcomes that indicate what pupils are expected to know, remember and be able to do, using the language of the ways of knowing and applying it to the discrete knowledge within each lens. It is against these expected outcomes that we assess pupil progress.

- Curriculum branches

Divide the model curriculum into 6-week units of study which repeat annually, giving a spiral curriculum which allows children to build progressively on the prior knowledge and develop their understanding year by year.

With a strong focus on stories and scripture, pupils encounter scripture and what the Church teaches about scripture and what this means for a life lived in Christ as part of the Catholic faith, through these six curriculum branches.

The curriculum branches are:

Branch 1	Creation and Covenant
Branch 2	Prophecy and Promise
Branch 3	Galilee to Jerusalem
Branch 4	Desert to Garden
Branch 5	To the Ends of the Earth
Branch 6	Dialogue and Encounter

The curriculum is firmly founded on building children's knowledge and understanding of Scripture, while providing opportunities to make connections to other faiths and cultures, as well as to their daily lives.

4. Religious education in the classroom and beyond

At St Mary's Catholic Primary School, the teaching of religious education is designed to be as varied and creative as possible, to help children to engage fully with the ideas explored, to ask questions and to lead their own learning in discerning their response.

At St Mary's, teachers use the diocesan programme The Way alongside inquiry, reflective dialogue and creative expression. Teaching is adapted and scaffolded so that pupils with SEND and pupils from different faith backgrounds can participate fully, while Religious Education remains faithful to Catholic teaching.

Learning within the classroom may include:

- Whole class discussion and teaching
- Group discussion and feedback
- Drama and role play
- Exploration through music and art
- External speakers/workshops

Learning in religious education cannot always be recorded and does not begin or end in the classroom. Learning from religious education will flow into other curriculum areas as pupils make links between their learning. We aim to give children the opportunity to connect their formal learning with their wider understanding through regular opportunities to reflect and respond.

Learning beyond the classroom may include:

- Following the example of a role model in daily life at home or in school
- How charitable activity and fundraising is a result of belief
- Inspiration through reflection in prayer and liturgy
- Conversations with clergy or parishioners in school
- Response to catechesis in the parish for example for Reconciliation or First Holy Communion
- Engagement with programmes based on Catholic social teaching for example Mini-Vinnies

We work closely with parents and with the parish to support children's progress in understanding and developing on their curriculum and faith journey.

At St Mary's, this includes close links with St Mary's Church. Sacramental preparation for Reconciliation and First Holy Communion takes place in the parish, and the school celebrates and supports pupils on their sacramental journey, including celebrating First Holy Communion during the annual May Procession.

5. The importance of the role of parents in religious education

Our school community recognises the central role parents have in the religious education of their children. The Bishops' Conference of England and Wales reiterated that: "The first educators in the faith are parents."

(Religious Education in Catholic Schools from the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, 2000)

In recognition of this, we strive to maintain a faithful partnership with parents, communicating clearly both the curriculum and the wider spiritual opportunities offered to families and warmly inviting parents to share their knowledge and experiences with the school community.

Parents and carers are warmly encouraged to participate in school liturgies, celebrations and other opportunities throughout the year, as well as weekly Pray at Home opportunities through the weekly St Mary's Word, strengthening the partnership between home, school and parish.

Our school works closely in partnership with the home and St Mary's parish community to which our children belong. The General Directory for Catechesis confirms, "This partnership between home and parish is enhanced by the role of the Catholic school in which the educational mission of the Church finds a particular and important expression." (Religious Education in Catholic Schools from the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, 2000)

Religious education in a Catholic school encompasses the whole educational mission of the Church and is not confined to timetabled Religious Education lessons.

6. Other world views

Catholic education seeks to form pupils who are well prepared to play a positive role in society and to follow Jesus' teaching to "love your neighbour". We therefore embrace learning about other world views with "a willingness... to try to understand better the religion of one's neighbours, and to experience something of their religious life and culture." (Meeting God in Friend and Stranger, Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, 2009)

The Religious Education Directory includes the branch 'Dialogue and Encounter' which focuses specifically on exploring other world views and recognising the connections with the Catholic faith. Opportunities for dialogue and encounter are sought throughout the academic year and especially focus on broadening pupils' experiences and on real-life encounters with those of other faiths or none, to enable connections and develop understanding. Examples may include:

- Opportunities for families in our community to share their faith and experience
- Conversations with invited visitors about their beliefs and experiences
- Q&A with faith leaders online or in person
- Visits to places of worship
- Guided exploration of artefacts from other faiths
- Independent reading, research and discussion

External speakers are always checked in line with the CES checklist for external speakers, to ensure safe and constructive dialogue and encounter opportunities for our pupils. External Speaker Checklist

7. Feedback, assessment, recording and reporting

Feedback is given in religious education to support children's progress and to challenge their thinking. This follows the school's feedback policy and may be given verbally.

Assessment follows diocesan and national guidelines, assessing against the expected outcomes for each branch in the Religious Education Directory. Pupil attainment is recorded half-termly on the school's assessment recording system and progress is tracked regularly by the RE subject leader and Senior Leadership Team in line with the school's assessment policies.

The RE subject leader will moderate outcomes in religious education both internally and with other Catholic schools, to ensure consistency of expectations with other schools in the diocese.

Outcomes for religious education are shared in line with other core curriculum subjects, both during parent consultation meetings and in end-of-year reports.

8. Monitoring and evaluating

The RE subject leader and Senior Leadership Team monitor every aspect of religious education in line with other core curriculum subjects. Monitoring is conducted each term, and feedback is given to individual staff. Outcomes may inform further training at staff meetings or actions for the subject action plan.

At St Mary's, monitoring evidence includes pupil voice, book looks, learning walks and lesson observations. Findings are used to identify strengths, next steps and priorities for staff development and the RE action plan.

Self-evaluation of religious education is the responsibility of the Headteacher, the RE subject leader, Governors and the Senior Leadership Team, with further input from all teachers of religious education, from families and from pupils. This process ensures a culture of continuous improvement, so that teaching and learning in religious education remains the best it can be.

9. Staff formation

All staff support the Catholic ethos of our school and strive to develop children's progress and understanding in matters of faith. There are regular opportunities for all staff to engage in personal prayer and reflection which may support their professional role.

The RE subject leader attends termly RE subject leader days to ensure they have the most up to date information, as well as attending moderation meetings on a yearly basis. They feed back to staff during meetings.

All teachers involved in planning and delivering religious education lessons have attended diocesan training on the Religious Education Directory resource. In addition all teachers have received training in school from the RE Lead and will continue to do so as each new Branch of the RE curriculum is introduced. Teachers also have access to the bite-sized training provided by the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle and can use this throughout the year to support their own knowledge and understanding.

All new staff will receive full training to support them with the teaching of religious education as part of their induction; they attend the Diocesan training: An Introduction to Catholic Education.

For all practitioners, there is the opportunity to engage with dedicated professional training and development through CCRS, rapid review sessions, Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle training, moderation opportunities and regular school-based staff meetings. The Governing Body supports staff who wish to complete the Catholic Certificate in Religious Studies (CCRS).

10. Review

The policy will be reviewed as part of the regular cycle of policy review conducted by the governors.

This religious education policy will be reviewed in October 2027.
