THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

14th DECEMBER 2025

At that time: When John heard in prison about the deeds of the Christ, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, 'Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?'

And Jesus answered them, 'Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. And blessed is the one who is not offended by me.'

As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: 'What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

'What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is he of whom it is written, "Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you."

'Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.'

"ADVENT POEM" BY ST. JOHN OF THE CROSS

If you want, the Virgin will come walking down the road
 pregnant with the Holy and say,
 "I need shelter for the night. Please take me inside your heart, my time is so close."
 Then, under the roof of your soul,
 you will witness the sublime intimacy,
 the divine, the Christ, taking birth forever,
 as she grasps your hand for help,
 for each of us is the midwife of God, each of us.
 Yes, there, under the dome of your being,
 does creation come into existence eternally,
 through your womb, dear pilgrim,
 the sacred womb of your soul,
 as God grasps our arms for help:
 for each of us is His beloved servant never far.
 If you want, the Virgin will come walking down the street, pregnant with Light, and sing!

"There are two births of Christ, one unto the world in Bethlehem; the other in the soul, when it is spiritually reborn. Men think of the former much more than the later, and celebrate it every year; but the spiritual Bethlehem is equally momentous. . . . It was the second birth that Saint Paul insisted on when he wrote from prison to his beloved people, the Ephesians, asking that Christ may dwell in their hearts by faith and that they be rooted and grounded in love. This is the second Bethlehem, or the personal relationship of the individual heart to the Lord Christ." – Ven. Fulton Sheen

"The liturgy of Advent...helps us to understand fully the value and meaning of the mystery of Christmas. It is not just about commemorating the historical event, which occurred some 2,000 years ago in a little village of Judea. Instead, it is necessary to understand that the whole of our life must be an 'advent,' a vigilant awaiting of the final coming of Christ. To predispose our mind to welcome the Lord who, as we say in the Creed, one day will come to judge the living and the dead, we must learn to recognize him as present in the events of daily life. Therefore, Advent is, so to speak, an intense training that directs us decisively toward him who already came, who will come, and who comes continuously." St. John Paul II

"It is Christmas every time you let God love others through you." – St. Teresa of Calcutta
