COULD YOU HELP? A lady who lives in Astley Village would very much like to come to a weekend Mass. Could someone bring and take her home please? Thank you.

Would the lady who contacted the parish office, please ring again. Thank you.

HAPPY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR 2026

I would like to wish all the parishioners, their families and friends, Mr Smyth and his staff and all the pupils and families, the very best wishes for Christmas and the New Year. I would also like to wish Heather Cheyne our parish centre manager and all the staff, the very best and I hope that you all have a joyful, blessed, peaceful and healthy time. I will especially remember at Holy Mass the people who are bereaved, the lonely and the housebound; in homes or in hospitals and those who look after them. It is also the ideal opportunity to thank the people who come every week and clean the church, the weekly gardeners, the flower team, the readers and altar servers, the visiting organists, the Christmas tree and crib organisers, and everyone who contributed to making our church so beautiful throughout the year and at Christmas. I would also like to thank Kieron Huddy who has dedicated his heart and soul with a great serving contribution to St Mary's on a daily basis. You are all very much appreciated. Thank you. Also, my thanks to all the parishioners who come to Mass and support this church and to all who financially contribute so we can pay the bills. Thank you.

We wish Canon Neil Kelley and his parishioners Christmas Blessings of health, peace and joy. We hope that the building works at St Laurence's run smoothly and on time and are successful.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

21st DECEMBER 2025

Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. And her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame, resolved to send her away quietly. But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, 'Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.' All this took place to fulfil what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: 'Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel' — which means, God with us. When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him: he took his wife. Matthew 1:18-24

ST JOSEPH, THE RIGHTEOUS MAN OF DREAMS: In the New Testament, only the Gospel of Matthew explicitly presents dreams as a means of revelation. Matthew relates six instances of divine communications in dreams, five of which are in the infancy narrative, one to the Magi and the other four to Joseph. Those to Joseph concern the journeys from Bethlehem to Egypt and back to Nazareth in Galilee. They each fulfil prophecies.

1) his taking Mary as wife and naming the child “Jesus;”

2) fleeing to Egypt to rescue the child and his mother;

3) returning from Egypt to Israel with the child and his mother;

4) withdrawing to Galilee and establishing residence in Nazareth.

While rare in the New Testament, dreams are rather common in the Old Testament, and a variety of significances accompany them. When foreigners such as Pharaoh or Nebuchadnezzar dreamt, a Hebrew man of God, such as Joseph or Daniel, was needed to interpret for them).

Israel, however, needs no help in interpreting dreams, which are often means of divine communication. Yahweh, whom no one can see and still live, commonly reveals in dreams and night visions his plans for his people and the role they are to play in those designs, as seen in the examples of Abraham, Abimelech, Laban, Jacob-Israel, Joseph, Samuel, Nathan, Solomon, and Daniel .

In St Joseph's dreams it is the “angel of the Lord,” who appears to him. Joseph invariably awakes with total faith and no doubt whatsoever about their interpretation.

Matthew shows how Joseph received the vocation to be a key personage in Jesus' infancy, and how that role could only be fulfilled by a special charism, a charism communicated to him by an angel of the Lord in dreams.

Joseph received an initial revelation about the identity of the child Jesus, conceived of the Holy Spirit to save his people from their sins. He then received subsequent messages about how he was to cooperate in that work of salvation by guarding and protecting the child and his mother.

In the Gospels, this manner of divine communication is unique to Joseph, so he alone can be called a “man of dreams,” a title previously given to his namesake, the patriarch Joseph. St Joseph received two means of divine communication common in the Old Testament: dreams and appearances of the angel of the Lord. By his obedient cooperation with the messages, he fulfilled Old Testament prophecies.

St Joseph parallels his Old Testament namesake in his association with dreams and Egypt, in escaping threats of death, and in being protected and blessed for his faithful exercise of the responsibility entrusted to him. St Joseph, righteous and just man, husband of Mary, pray for us.

ADVENT QUOTATION: “There are two births of Christ, one unto the world in Bethlehem; the other in the soul, when it is spiritually reborn. Men think of the former much more than the later, and celebrate it every year; but the spiritual Bethlehem is equally momentous. . . . It was the second birth that Saint Paul insisted on when he wrote from prison to his beloved people, the Ephesians, asking that Christ may dwell in their hearts by faith and that they be rooted and grounded in love. This is the second Bethlehem, or the personal relationship of the individual heart to the Lord Christ.” – Ven. Fulton Sheen
