Section 3: Early Education Funded Hours

- Table 1 MUST be fully completed for all early education funded hours to be claimed, including the session times agreed and any additional charges that may apply for meals/snacks and/or consumables.
- As the government funding is not intended to cover the cost of meals/consumables parents should expect to pay for these. However, any additional charges cannot be a condition of accessing the funded hours/place.
- The childcare provider is only permitted to claim the hours that have been agreed in table 1.
- Where the total annual hours in table 1 is less than the child's annual entitlement the provider may agree to bank these hours to be used later in the term/year. Where this is the case the agreed hours to be banked each term MUST be recorded in table 2.
- A record of the actual dates that the banked hours are taken MUST also be kept by the childcare provider for audit purposes.
- If a parent does not use their banked hours, or gives written notice to end their child's place, before all the bank hours have been used the childcare provider MUST re-pay the unused hours to the Local Authority.
