

We work collaboratively.

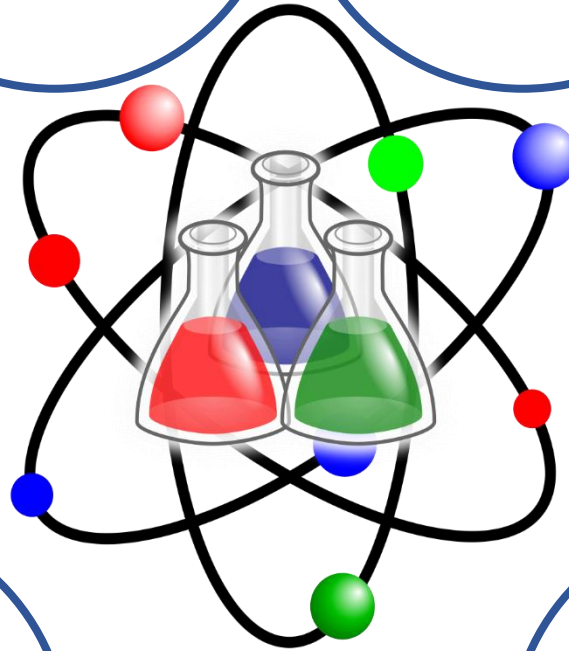

Our science lessons are taught indoors and outdoors.

We make observations and take measurements.

We are curious and make predictions.

Practical investigations help us to answer questions.

We learn how science works in the real world.

We can explain what we have discovered using scientific vocabulary.

We think of our own scientific questions to investigate.

Chorley St
Mary's Catholic
Primary School
& Nursery

Science Principles

