THE ROAD TO EMMAUS - REFLECTION

Most of us, at a certain age in our past, chose which road to travel in our personal and family lives, our careers, our education, and our Faith. Those choices we made is probably evident in our surroundings now. You shall reap as you sow! The roads that we travel during our lives can be full of excitement and happiness, joy and laughter. Sadly, there may have been times when there have been sadness and tears, arguments and upset. Encountering Our Blessed Lord on these roads, in the form of a needy relative or a sick friend, a stranger who needed help or food, tells us that Jesus Christ can be found in anyone who we meet 'on the road' in our lives. Sometimes, when we look back on events, we contemplate at what happened and how it happened? The guidance of our guardian angels and our prayers to our saints, give us a little nudge from time to time and we can realise that we are not walking along the road on our own, but indeed with a little help from a very generous and merciful God. Some people put their bets on luck and good fortune but we the followers of Jesus Christ, the Risen Lord, have our belief in the Resurrection and prayers in our hearts, as we put our trust in The Lord to accompany us on every road that will hopefully lead us to heaven and into God's presence and Our Blessed Lady and Saints.

ARCHDIOCESE OF LIVERPOOL Registered Charity No. 1199714

St Mary's Catholic Church, Chorley

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER 23rd APRIL 2023

Two of the disciples of Jesus were on their way to a village called Emmaus, seven miles from Jerusalem, and they were talking together about all that had happened. Now as they talked this over, Jesus himself came up and walked by their side; but something prevented them from recognising him. He said to them, 'What matters are you discussing as you walk along?' They stopped short, their faces downcast.

Then one of them, called

Cleopas, answered him, 'You must be the only person staying in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have been happening there these last few days.' 'What things?' he asked. 'All about Jesus of Nazareth' they answered 'who proved he was a great prophet by the things he said and did in the sight of God and of the whole people; and how our chief priests and our leaders handed him over to be sentenced to death and had him crucified. Our own hope had been that he would be the one to set Israel free. And this is not all: two whole days have gone by since it all happened; and some women from our group have astounded us: they went to the tomb in the early morning, and when they did not find the body, they came back to tell us they had seen a vision of angels who declared he was alive. Some of our friends went to the tomb and found everything exactly as the women had reported, but of him they saw nothing.'

Then he said to them, 'You foolish men! So slow to believe the full message of the prophets! Was it not ordained that the Christ should suffer and so enter into his glory?' Then, starting with Moses and going through all the prophets, he explained to them the passages throughout the scriptures that were about himself.

When they drew near to the village to which they were going, he made as if to go on; but they pressed him to stay with them. 'It is nearly evening' they said, 'and the day is almost over.' So he went in to stay with them. Now while he was with them at table, he took the bread and said the blessing; then he broke it and handed it to them.

And their eyes were opened, and they recognised him; but he had vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, 'Did not our hearts burn within us as he talked to us on the road and explained the scriptures to us?'

They set out that instant and returned to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven assembled together with their companions, who said to them, 'Yes, it is true. The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon.' Then they told their story of what had happened on the road and how they had recognised him at the breaking of bread. Luke 24:13-35

LIVERPOOL METROPOLITAN CATHEDRAL: On Sunday 30th April, Bishop Kenneth Nowakowsky will preside at this Pontifical Divine Liturgy, which will start at 3:00pm. His Grace, Archbishop Malcolm McMahon OP will also join this special Mass. In advance of the Eurovision Song Contest, it will be an occasion to celebrate Mass in the Byzantine Tradition to pray for peace and an end to the invasion of Ukraine as well as the success of the Eurovision Events. Please car share if you intend to go and let others know if you have room in the car. Thank you. This will be a very special occasion and as you know Liverpool is hosting the Eurovision song contest on behalf of Ukraine.

POPE FRANCIS has generously gifted King Charles III relics from The True Cross which are placed in the new Cross of Wales and will lead the Coronation Procession on 6th May. The King has given the Cross as a centenary gift to the Church in Wales. The inscription on the Cross reads – 'Be joyful, keep the Faith and do the little things'.

The two pieces of the relics are found in the centre of the Cross. On Friday 5th May after the 12.00 noon, there will be light refreshments at the back of the church and a toast for our new sovereign, King Charles III.
