Who is who?

Duke of York

The brother of the King who helped give orders to stop the fire spreading

King Charles II

The King at the time.

Samuel Pepys

Famous man who kept a diary of everything that happened

Thomas Bludworth/Bloodworth

He was the mayor of London who did not take warnings about the fire seriously enough at the start.

Thomas Farriner/Farynor

The baker who lived in Pudding lane. A spark from his ovens started the Fire.

Top takeaways

1. Children understand how a small event, with a careless baker in a short narrow lane, can lead to a major rebuilding of vast areas of the capital.
2. They are able to explain that there were a variety of reasons for the fire and can suggest the most important ones.
3. They are able to describe the desperate measures taken to control the fire and can explain how Londoners felt at the time.
4. They can explain how the appearance of London changed after the Fire both the houses and the street layout and that the fire led to better fire service.
