

Knowledge organiser – Food and Farming

What will we be learning?

- Where food comes from
- How food is produced and how it gets to us
- Choices and issues involved in food, farming and trade

Key facts

The UK buys and sells food around the world

Not all foodstuffs can be produced in a country with a temperate climate, such as the UK

The Fairtrade mark guarantees a fair price for food production

Key knowledge

Our food comes from many different places around the world

There can be many different steps along the journey from farm to fork

The food choices we make affect people and nature in many different places

Place names	Geographical terms and processes	Locational terms
Australia Bangladesh Dominica Dominican Republic Ghana Kenya Senegal Uganda United Kingdom	agriculture economy environment export fairtrade food miles import irrigation plantation production chain trade	latitude map reference northern hemisphere southern hemisphere

Glossary

agriculture: farming

economy: the wealth and resources of a place irrigation: the supply of water, especially for growing crops trade: exchanging goods or services, usually for money