Key Facts

- It is important to recognise and talk about your emotions
- There is a normal range of emotions (e.g. happiness, sadness, anger, fear, surprise, nervousness) and scale of emotions that all humans experience in relation to different experiences and situations
- It is important to judge whether what you are feeling and how you are behaving is appropriate and proportionate

I will learn the following new words/phrases:

Displeasure	Feeling annoyed, dissatisfied, or disappointed.
Annoyance	Something that annoys or irritates someone.
Hostility	The state of being unfriendly or full of hate.

Ask me a question!

- Can you describe the feeling of anger?
- How can we manage the feeling of anger in a positive, healthy way?

By the end of these topics, I should:

- recognise that everyone experiences emotions and that these can have physical effects on our body, both pleasant and unpleasant
- explain how feelings can be communicated with or without words
- recognise that we can choose how we act on our emotions and that our choices and actions can affect ourselves and other people
- demonstrate a range of strategies to help control and manage unpleasant/uncomfortable emotions, such as anger
