

Year 4 Authors, Poets and Stories

In Year 4 we will look at the following three authors E.B White, Phillip Pullman & Anne Fine. As well as this we will study the below stories, poets and authors throughout our work in English and in our class novel time.

	Authors, poets and stories linked to English	Class Novel
Autumn 1	The Treasure of the Loch Ness Monster by Lari Don The True Story of the Loch Ness Monster by Frances Gilbert	The Water-Horse by Dick King-Smith
Autumn 2	Until I met Dudley by Roger McGough A range of fairy tales with a focus on The Pied Piper Poet-Macavity the mystery cat by T.S. Eliot	Perry Angel's Suitcase by Glenda Millard Tudor Boy Spy by Philip Ardagh
Spring 1	The Balaclava Story by George Layton	The Firework Maker's Daughter by Phillip Pullman Voices in the park by Anthony Brown
Spring 2	Jonathon Swift's Gulliver retold by Martin Jenkins Poet- Christina Rossetti- The City Mouse and the garden mouse	Bill's New Frock by Anne Fine
Summer 1	The Mousehole Cat by Antonia Barber
Summer 2	Classic tales of Brer Rabbit collected by Joel Chandler Harris	Charlotte's Web by E.B.White

Philip Pullman

Philip Pullman
David Levenson/Getty Images

British author Philip Pullman is best known for a trilogy, or set of three books, called His Dark Materials. Most of Pullman's stories are written for children and young people, though many of them have proved popular with adults too. Pullman's books make the reader think about the nature of the world, God, wisdom, religion, and the purpose of life.

E.B. White

E.B. White
Encyclopædia Britannica, Inc.

(1899–1985). The writer E.B. White is probably best known for his three children's books, including Charlotte's Web. But he also wrote many essays, poems, and other works during his long career.

Anne Fine

Anne Fine has written many books for children and young adults.
Steve Black—Rex Features/AP Images

Anne Fine is an English writer. She has written numerous books for children, as well as novels for adults. She served as the United Kingdom's children's laureate from 2001 to 2003. The laureate's job is to support children's literature.