

Year 4 Authors, Poets and Stories

In Year 4 we will look at the following three authors E.B White, Phillip Pullman & Anne Fine. As well as this we will study the below stories, poets and authors throughout our work in English and in our class novel time.

| | Authors, poets and stories linked to English | Class Novel |
|-----------------|---|--|
| Autumn 1 | The Treasure of the Loch Ness Monster by Lari Don The True Story of the Loch Ness Monster by Frances Gilbert | The Water-Horse by Dick King-Smith Anne Fine |
| Autumn 2 | Until I met Dudley by Roger McGough A range of fairy tales with a focus on The Pied Piper Poet-Macavity the mystery cat by T.S. Eliot | The Last Bear by Hannah Gold How Winston Delivered Christmas by Alex T Smith |
| Spring 1 | Poet- Christina Rossetti- The City Mouse and the garden mouse The Balaclava Story by George Layton | The Firework Maker's Daughter by Phillip Pullman Bill's New Frock by Anne Fine |
| Spring 2 | Jonathon Swift's Gulliver retold by Martin Jenkins | Voices in the park by Anthony Brown Pig Heart Boy by Malorie Blackman |
| Summer 1 | The Time-Slip Scarab by Pie Corbett | A Dangerous Game by Malorie Blackman |
| Summer 2 | Aladdin by Phillip Pullman Poems with a structure: Poet? | Charlotte's Web by E.B.White |

Philip Pullman

Philip Pullman
David Levenson/Getty Images

British author Philip Pullman is best known for a trilogy, or set of three books, called His Dark Materials. Most of Pullman's stories are written for children and young people, though many of them have proved popular with adults too. Pullman's books make the reader think about the nature of the world, God, wisdom, religion, and the purpose of life.

Anne Fine

Anne Fine has written many books for children and young adults.

Steve Black—Rex Features/ AP Images

Anne Fine is an English writer. She has written numerous books for children, as well as novels for adults. She served as the United Kingdom's children's laureate from 2001 to 2003. The laureate's job is to support children's literature.

ADD Malorie Blackman