Module: Relationships

Topic: Bullying and Body Language

Key Facts

- Bullying (including cyberbullying) has a negative and often lasting impact on mental wellbeing
- It is important to take time to judge whether what you are feeling and how you are behaving is appropriate and proportionate
- healthy friendships are positive and welcoming towards others, and do not make others feel lonely or excluded

By the end of these topics, I should:

- be able to name a range of feelings
- understand why we should care about other people's feelings
- be able to see and understand bullying behaviours
- know how to cope with these bullying behaviours
- be able to recognise and name a range of feelings
- understand that feelings can be shown without words
- be able to see a situation from another person's point of view
- understand why it is important to care about other people's feelings

I will learn the following new words/phrases:

Bullying	A repeated aggressive or unkind behaviour.
Mean	Unkind, spiteful, or unfair.
Describe	To say or write what someone or something is like.
Teasing	To laugh at someone or say unkind things about them.
Threatening	Expressing a threat of something unpleasant or violent.
Advice	An opinion that someone offers you about what you should do or how you should act in a particular situation.
Imagine	To form or have a mental picture or idea of something.
Anti-bullying	Opposed to or acting against bullying.

Ask me a question!

- How might someone feel if they are being bullied?
- If you thought someone was being bullied, what could you do?
- How can you be kind to someone?
- What kind of things can friends fall out over or disagree about?
- What can we do if we fall out with our friends?
