Dear parents,

Please see the below dates for the exciting activities we have planned over the next few weeks;

Wednesday 26th June – Junior swimming, children need to take pyjamas for life saving skills.

Thursday 27th June – Infant school trip to Nest Farm, please send your child to school with a packed lunch. In the afternoon PCSO Alan will be giving a talk to the Yr5 and Yr6 pupils this will include staying safe over summer and a transition talk for the Yr6 pupils.

Thursday 4th July- Junior school trip to Townley park, please send your child to school with a packed lunch. Gardening club, call on the Crewe's day, this is visiting Virginia and Pete's garden, parents/grandparents would have to transport their child/children.

Monday 8th July – Sports day 1pm- 3pm (weather dependant) please meet on the sports field, children can leave school once the sporting events have finished.

Friday 12th July - Rushbearing workshop 1pm- 2:30pm parents/grandparents are all welcome to assist in the making of the crowns and crosses, Celebration Assembly will follow at 2.45pm.

Monday 15th July – Provisional sports day 1pm-3pm, if the sports day on the 8th July is called off due to adverse weather.

Tuesday 16th July - Orienteering day, please ensure your child has trainers, sunhat and sun cream.

Wednesday 17th July - Last swimming session for the juniors.

At St Mary's we believe that it is possible for ordinary people to choose to be extraordinary!

Tuesday 23rd July – Leavers service at 1,30pm-2.30pm, all are welcome. School closes for the summer at 2.30pm, following the departure of our Yr6 pupils.

School re-opens on Monday 2nd September, have a lovely summer break!

Kind regards
