Dear parents,

This Christmas the Rotakids would like to ask for your help with their Christmas Appeal.

Earlier this year our Rotakids met with members of Padiham Rotary, who informed the children that this Christmas they would be having a Christmas Shoebox Appeal for the local Women's Refuge.

Our children thought this was a fabulous idea - providing presents on Christmas Day for those who are much less fortunate than themselves. The Rotakids would like to ask each school family to donate a shoebox packed with goodies either for a girl/boy or an adult lady. Please can we ask that each box is wrapped in festive wrapping paper and clearly labelled for a girl/boy or adult lady. Here are some suggestions for the contents of the box:

- toiletries (toothbrush, toothpaste, hair brush, deodorant etc)
- toys (can be good condition second hand) Pop-its, Top Trumps, Uno, colouring books and pencils etc
- chocolate bars, sweets
- socks,
- teddies (if second hand, please wash)
- woolly hat, scarf and gloves

Please can we ask for the boxes to be in school by Monday 11th December for collection by Padiham Rotary. Thank you.

Kind regards,
