World Book Day 'Walking reviews!'

This year rather than dressing up as a book character we decided to use a t-shirt to describe a favourite book- we all became 'walking book reviews'. It was lovely to see so many children joining in and they all had a lovely day. Thankyou all so much for helping your child with the t-shirts I know getting them dressed up is never easy! The range in designs were amazing from Harry Potter to unicorns and Tom Gates to the Gruffalo- what a bunch of talented people we have.

Value- Forgiveness

This week we have launched our new half termly value of 'Forgiveness'. This value is extremely important as it shows we can truly live like Jesus.

In our assembly the children learnt about the unforgiving servant- a parable told by Jesus to explain why we should forgive. Jesus actually mentioned that we should forgive each other 77 times. For Jesus to say "77," then, would be to exaggerate this standard of perfection – a metaphorical way of saying "forgive until you reach perfect perfection." In essence, Jesus was saying "forgive to infinity."

It does not mean that we let others get away with things, but more that we make a conscious effort to forgive and let go of feelings that come with bearing a grudge against a person.

These feelings of anger and hatred can cause harm to the person feeling them, so Jesus taught people to try and let them go.

There is no act more difficult than to forgive someone, especially when they may have caused harm or upset. To show forgiveness is an act of love.
