

Previously, we learned:

Italy &
volcanoes (topography)

Year
5/6

Greece

Later, you will learn:

Ancient Greece

Knowledge

By the end of this unit of study, pupils will be able to:

One	To know where Greece is in relation to the UK and the world and name some of its major cities and seas.	<input type="radio"/>
Two	To know physical features of the region of Attica and compare to Garstang.	<input type="radio"/>
Three	To know human features of the region of Attica and compare to Garstang.	<input type="radio"/>
Four	To know the shape of Greece on a map and be able to draw it including capital city.	<input type="radio"/>
Five	To know the land use of the region of Attica and compare to Garstang	<input type="radio"/>
Six	To know how tourism effects Greece and name some and draw some popular landmarks	<input type="radio"/>

Key Learning

To know how to use maps and atlases, both books and online to find Greece and UK.

To know how to look at photos to identify physical features.

To know how to use photos to identify human features of a place.

Draw map of Greece including capital city, known towns and some rivers

Land use in Greece

Tourism and landmarks in Greece

Key Vocabulary

Greece Athens Europe mountainous beach Euro tourism ancient civilization coastal historic cultural capital Attica region