Knowledge

By the end of this unit of study, pupils will be able to:

One	Know some of the key events during the ancient Greek period.
Two	Examine how Alexander the Great's Empire grew and the effects of this.
Three	Research aspects of daily life and society in ancient Greece.
Four	Make connections and draw contrasts between life in ancient Athens and life in ancient Sparta.
Five	Explore the Olympics in ancient Greek times through examining primary sources.
Six	Identify the similarities and differences between the Olympic Games in ancient Greek times and the modern Olympic Games.

Key Learning

Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge and understanding of British, local and world history, establishing clear narratives within and across the periods they study.

Note connections, contrasts and trends over time.

Address and sometimes devise historically valid questions about change, cause, similarity and difference, and significance.

Understand how our knowledge of the past is constructed from a range of sources.

Develop the appropriate use of historical terms.
