

Title: The Winning Goal

Jim shouted for the ball. He was on the half way line and no one else was near him.
The defender passed the ball and Jim started running.
Now, he only had the goal keeper to beat.
Screaming loudly, his mum and dad cheered him on while Lily giggled in her buggy.
Jim raced down the middle of the pitch and kicked the muddy ball as hard as he could.
The back of the net bulged and half of the crowd cheered.
Jim ran to the corner flag and slid on his knees.
