

How to Count Crocodiles

Once there was a monkey who was always up to tricks and getting into mischief.

One morning Monkey came dancing down to the river. The first thing she saw, way over on the other side, was a mango tree laden with greeny-yellow-orange mangoes.

Just looking at those mangoes made her feel hungry.

A What fruit was growing on the tree?

Tick one.

oranges ☐

bananas ☐

lemons ☐

mangoes ☐

B Where was the tree?

“I must have some mangoes!” she said. “I must!
But how can I cross to the other side?”

Monkey sat and she thought. And then ... she saw a dark snout and two slit eyes, floating down the river.

“That’s Old Snapper-jaws, if I’m not mistaken,” she said. “He could be useful.” She called out, “King Crocodile!”

10 What did Crocodile think Monkey was trying to do?

11 What was Monkey really trying to do?

Monkey danced over to the mango tree. She climbed it, reached out, picked a greeny-yellow-orange mango, and took a big bite.

"Ooooh!" she said. "This mango is scr-ump-tious!"

"Now," said Crocodile, "go and fetch all the monkeys and line them up along the bank so I can count them."

"Go and fetch all the monkeys?" said Monkey with a cheeky smile.

"I wasn't planning to do that!"

"And why not?" asked Crocodile.

"Old Snapper-jaws," said Monkey,

"I don't care whether there are more monkeys.

I only wanted to cross the river so I could eat some mangoes."

Then twenty-nine angry crocodiles went swimming off to look for their dinner. And, to this day, what crocodiles like to eat most of all is ... monkey! The trouble is monkeys are very, very, hard to catch.

Tick one.

so that they grow bigger

so that they cannot hurt people

to take them to

to put them in water

- 2 How did Steve catch the crocodile?

At first the crocodile tried very hard to get away. Steve had to be very strong and hold onto the crocodile until it got tired and stopped fighting. When the crocodile was still, Steve put it into a special bag. The special bag stopped the crocodile from moving about or biting.

Steve then took the crocodile to a new home.

3 What did Steve do with the crocodile when it was still?

Tick one.

let it go

held onto it

put it in a bag

jumped on its back
