Harvest

Thank you everyone who sent in a donation of either food or money for our Harvest service. The food will go to the local Community Food Hub, to help support our local community and the money will go to the Blackburn Diocese Harvest Appeal which this year is aiming to help women in Burundi learn to read and write and get a better life for themselves and their families.

Your generosity in these challenging times is much appreciated.

Bikeability

Year 5 have been having a great time this week learning how to ride their bikes safely. Those children who haven't taken part this week will do so next week.

Half term Break

A reminder that we close after school (normal time) next Thursday, 20th October as the staff have a training day next Friday. We re-open on Monday 31st October.

“Be blessed by God, be happy and aspire to be...”
