

All about l & ll.

Let's practise our Tricky Words!

I

the no

go to

Can you remember our sounds from yesterday?

f

ff

Our new sound today is l

Action

Pretend to lick an ice lolly.

Say 'l, l, l'.

Write the Letter

Down the lolly and lick!

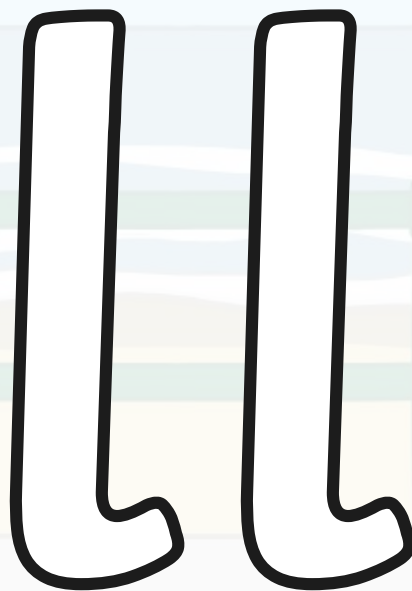

Play

Write the Letter

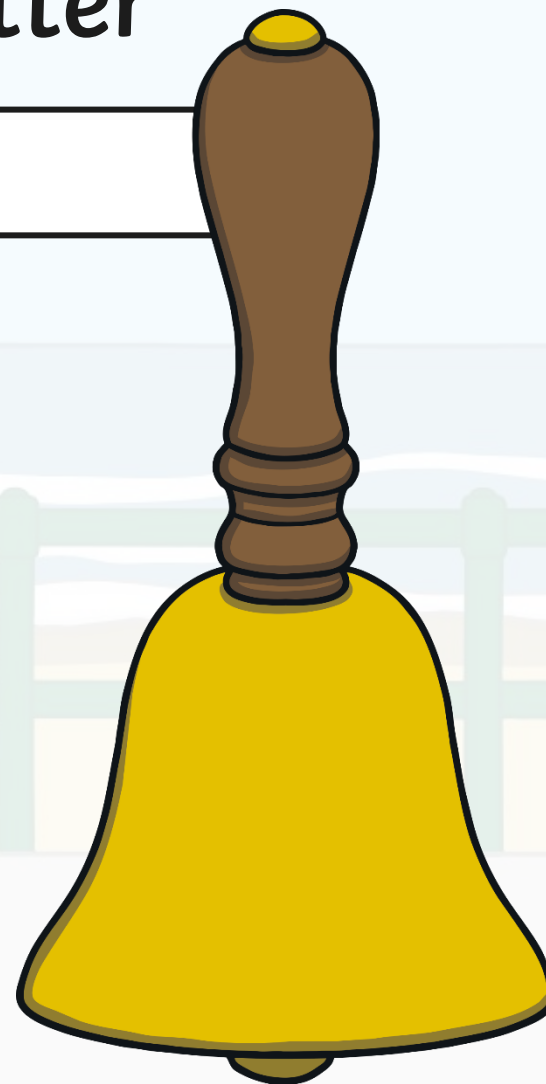

At the end of some words, the 'l' sound is written as:

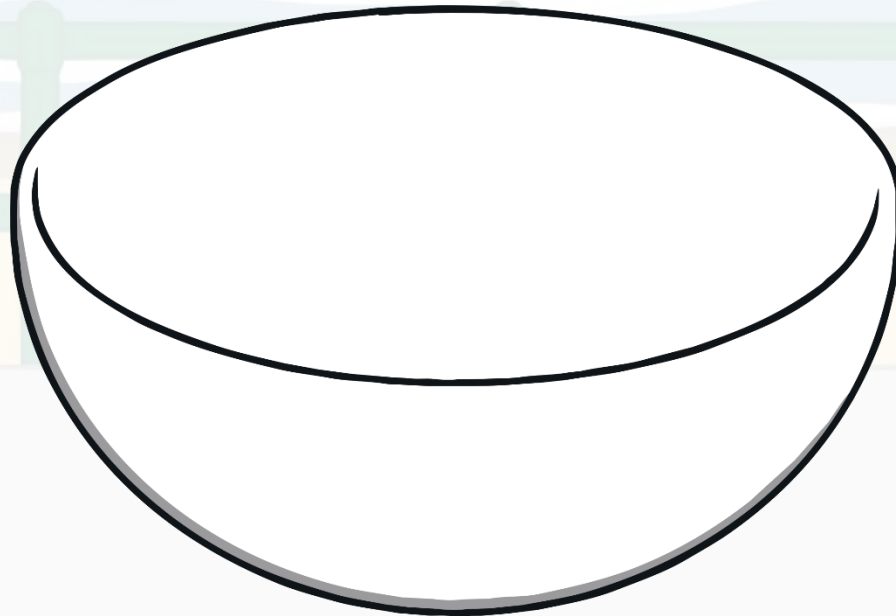

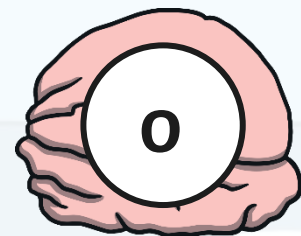

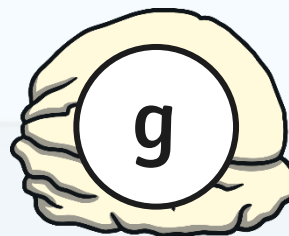

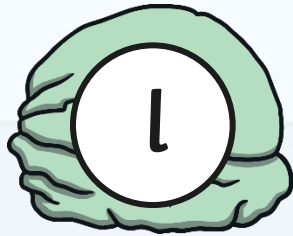

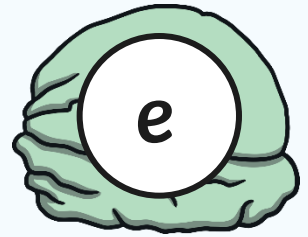

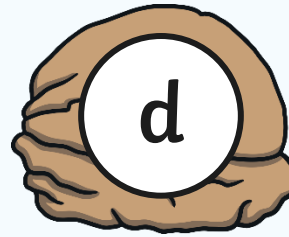

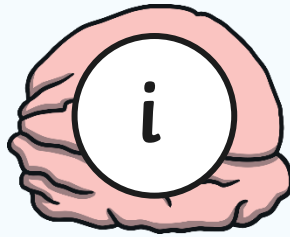

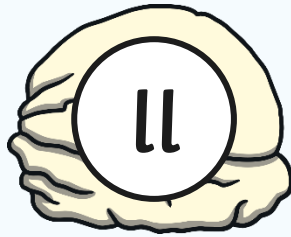

Write the Letter

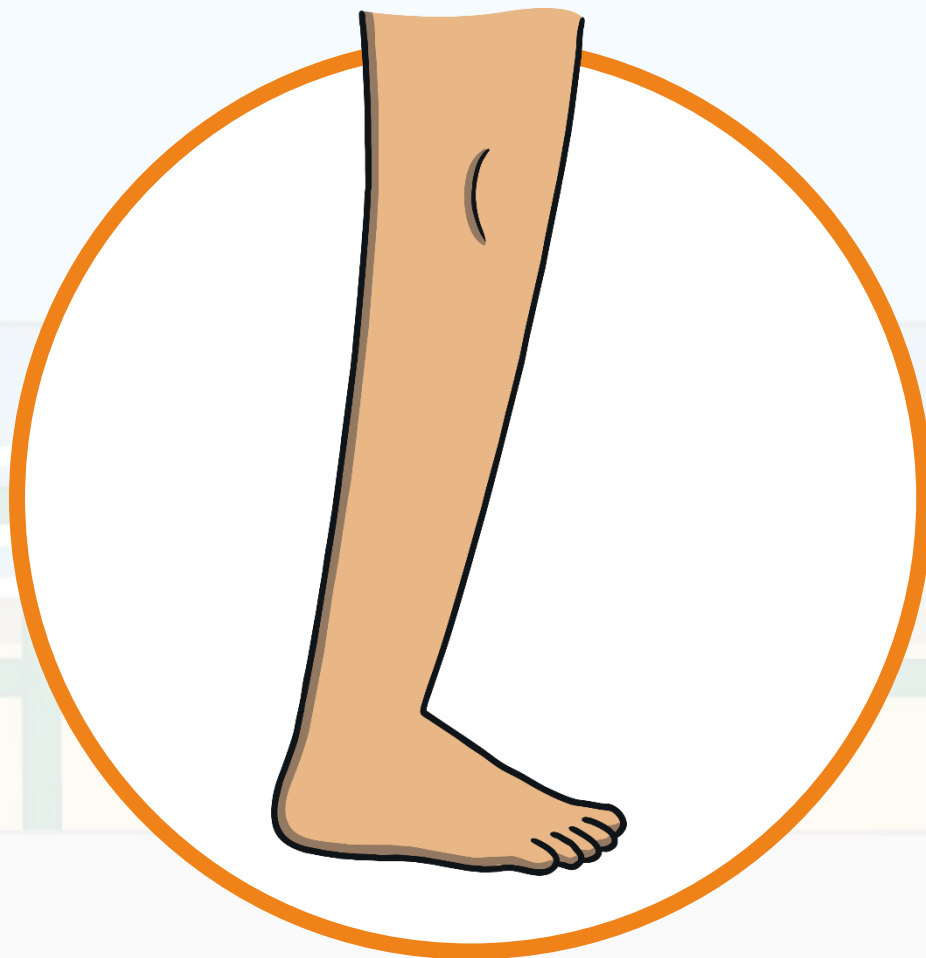

For example:

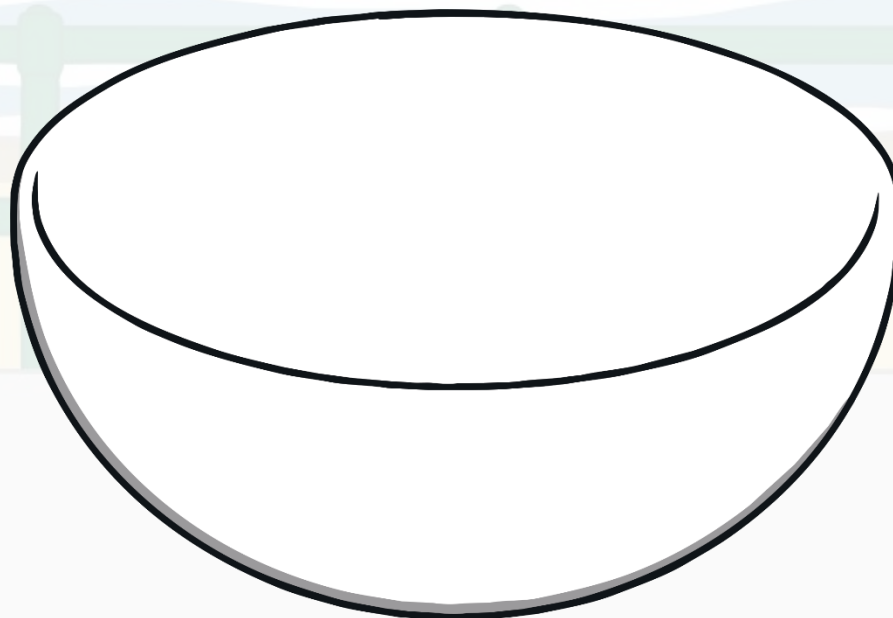

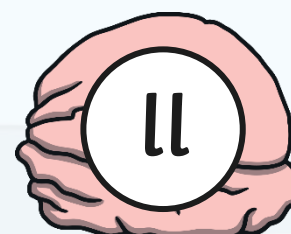

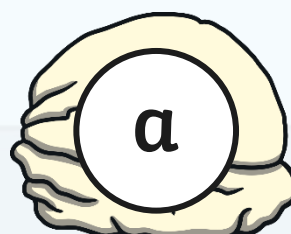

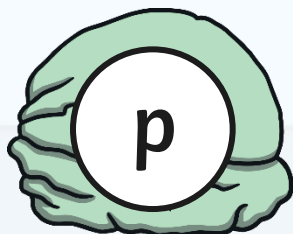

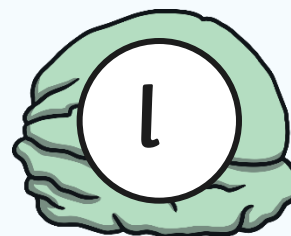

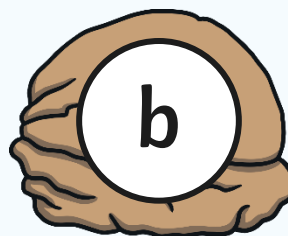

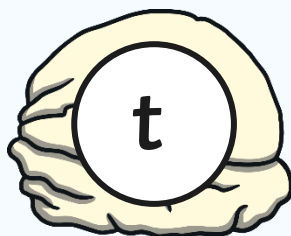

bell

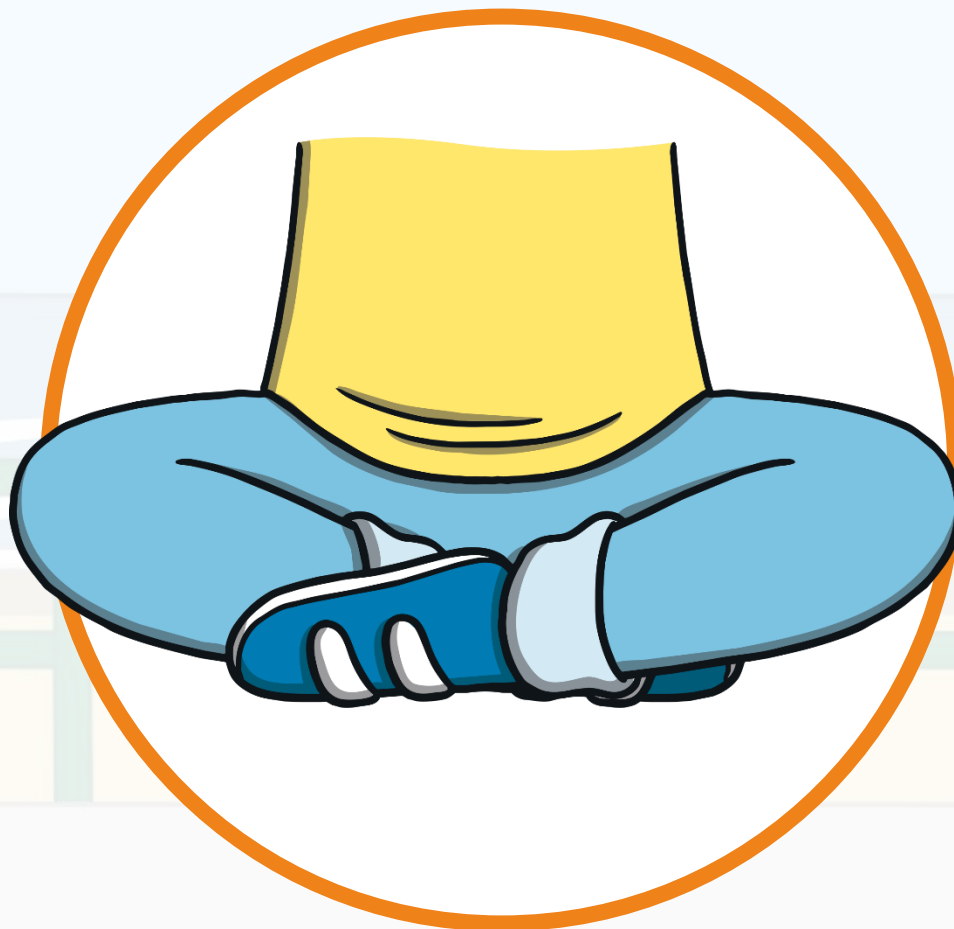

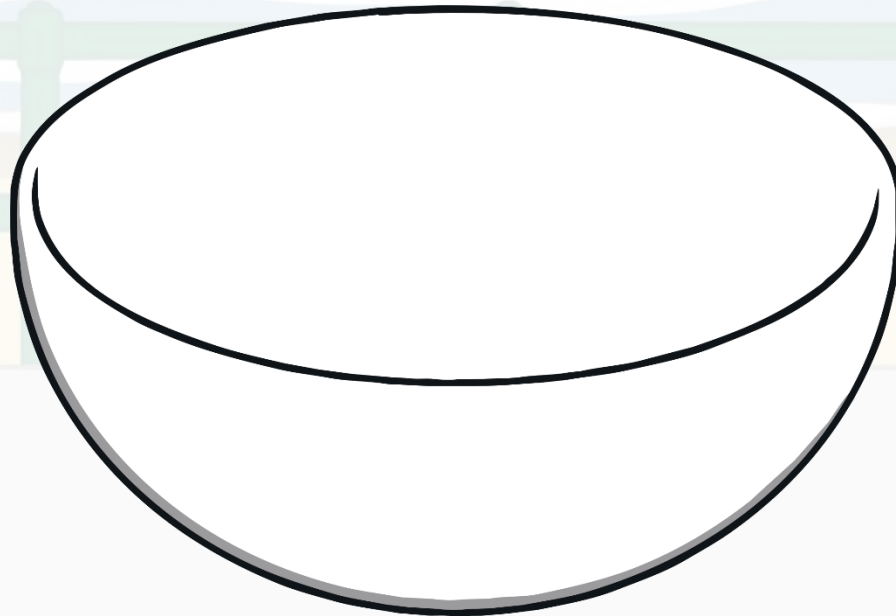

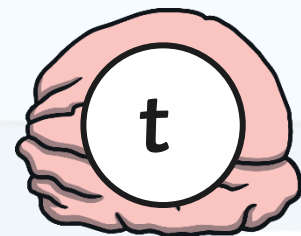

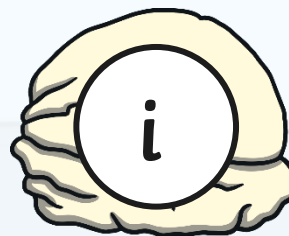

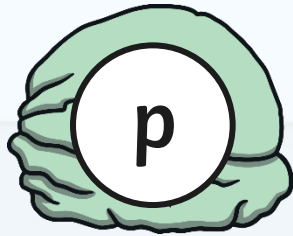

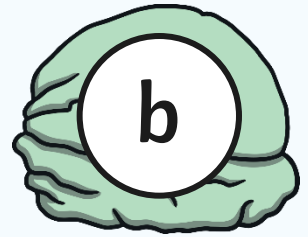

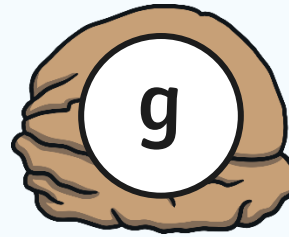

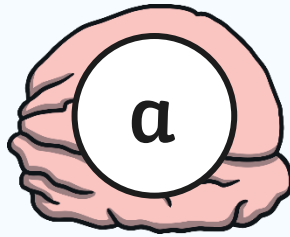

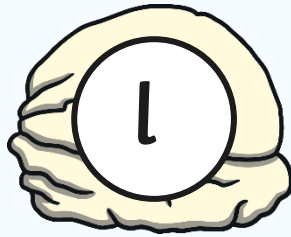

On the next slide, listen for the sounds and blend them together to make the word.

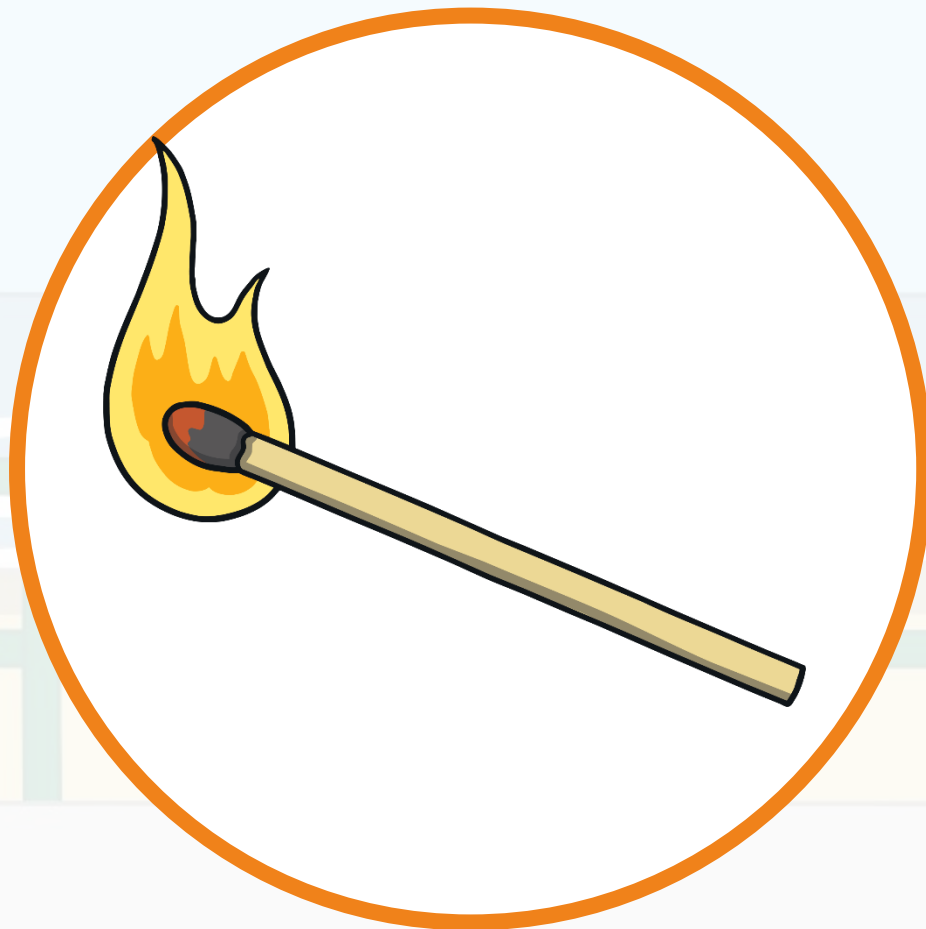

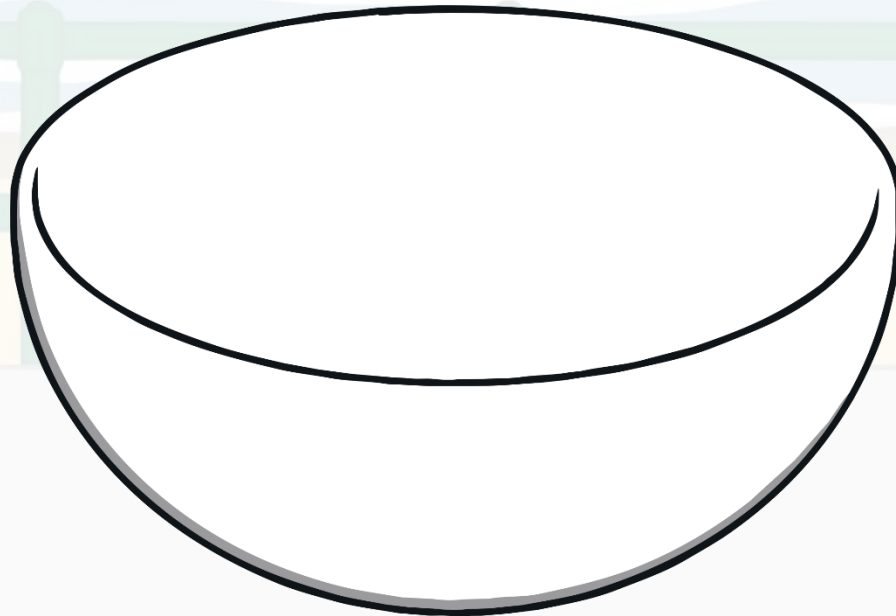

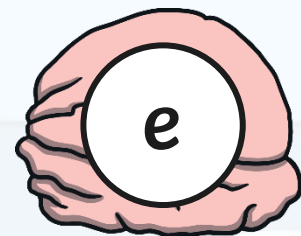

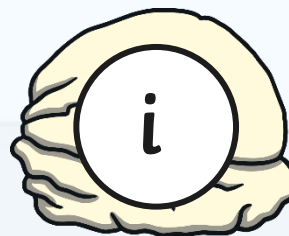

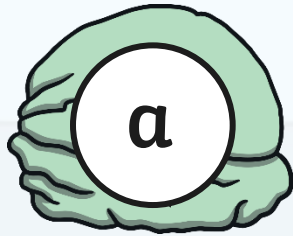

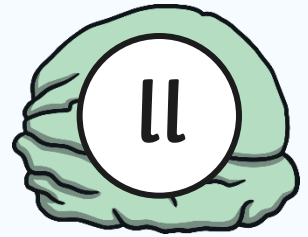

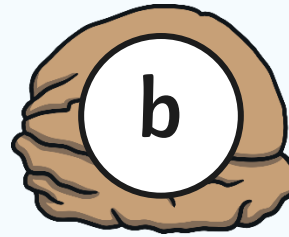

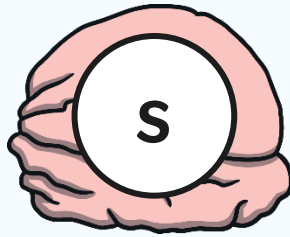

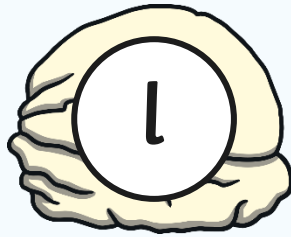

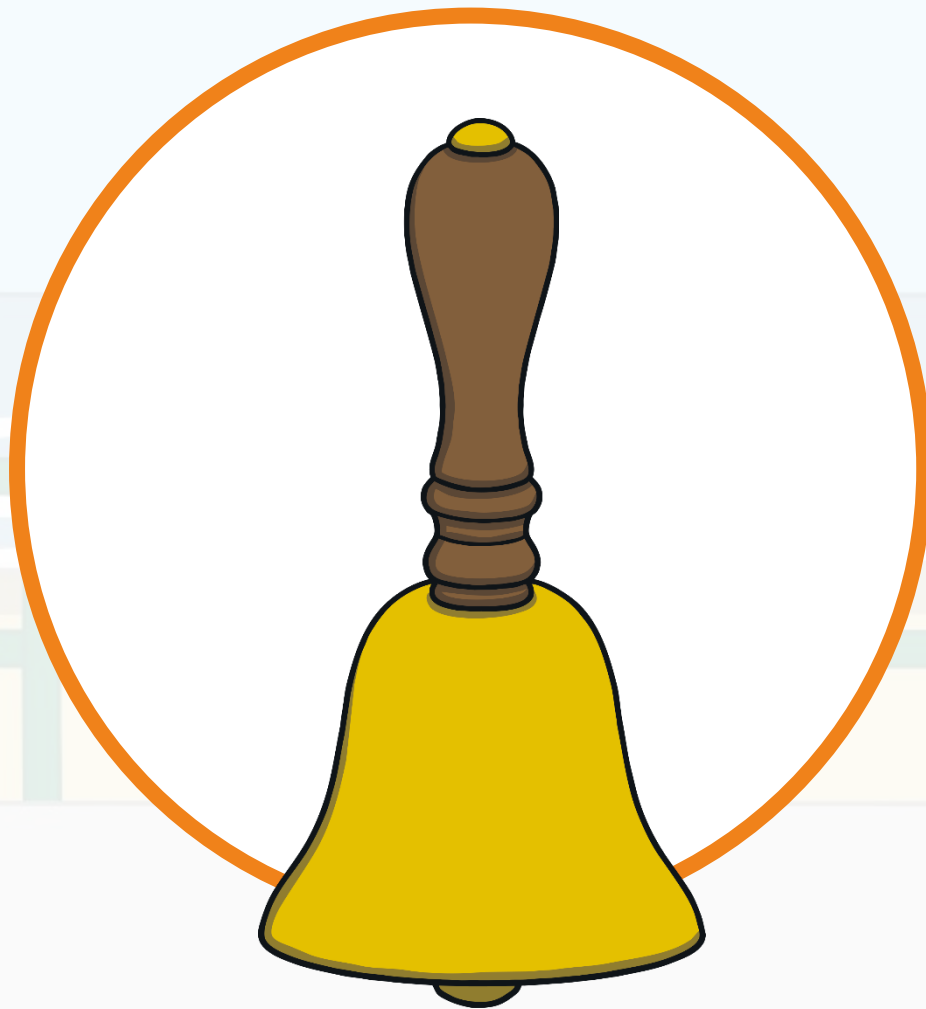

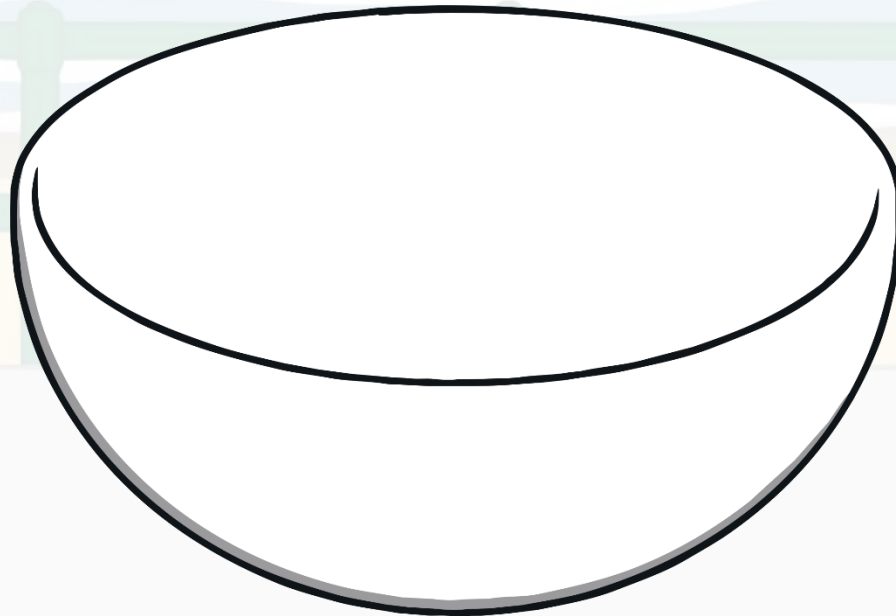

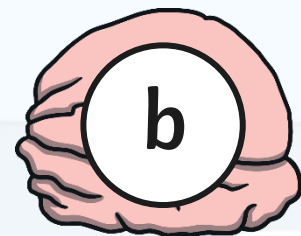

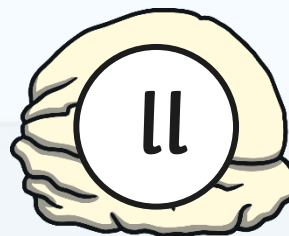

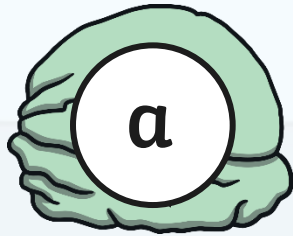

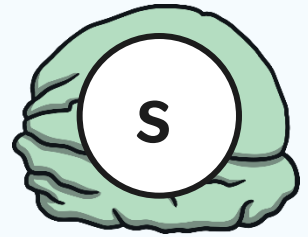

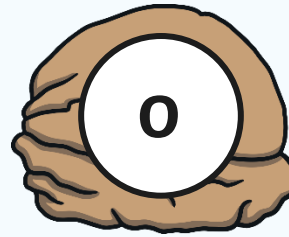

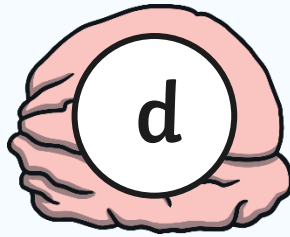

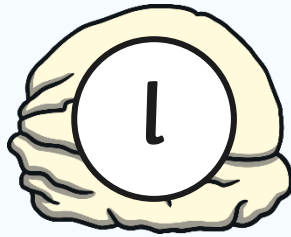

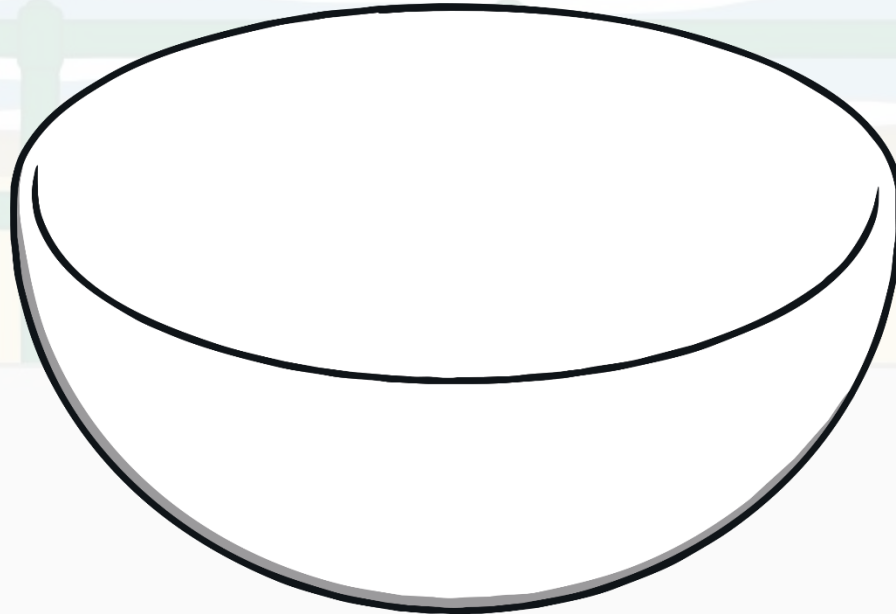

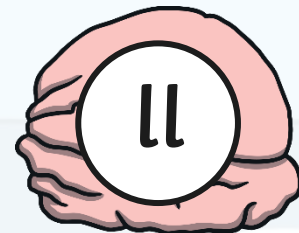

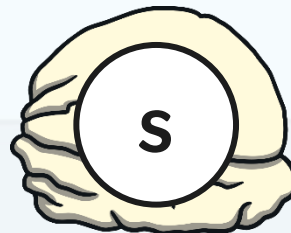

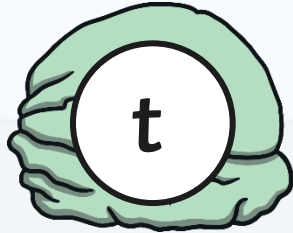

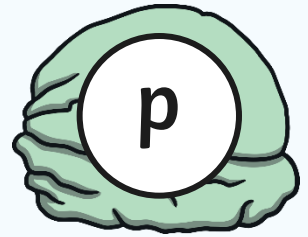

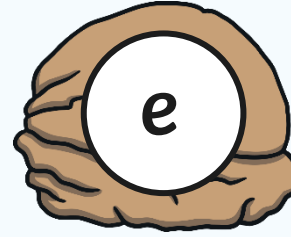

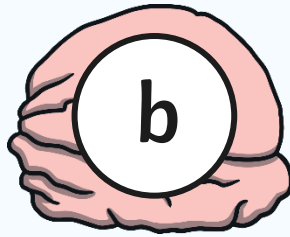

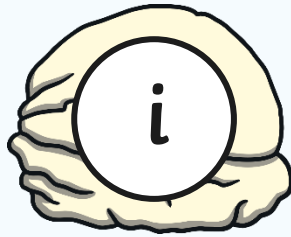

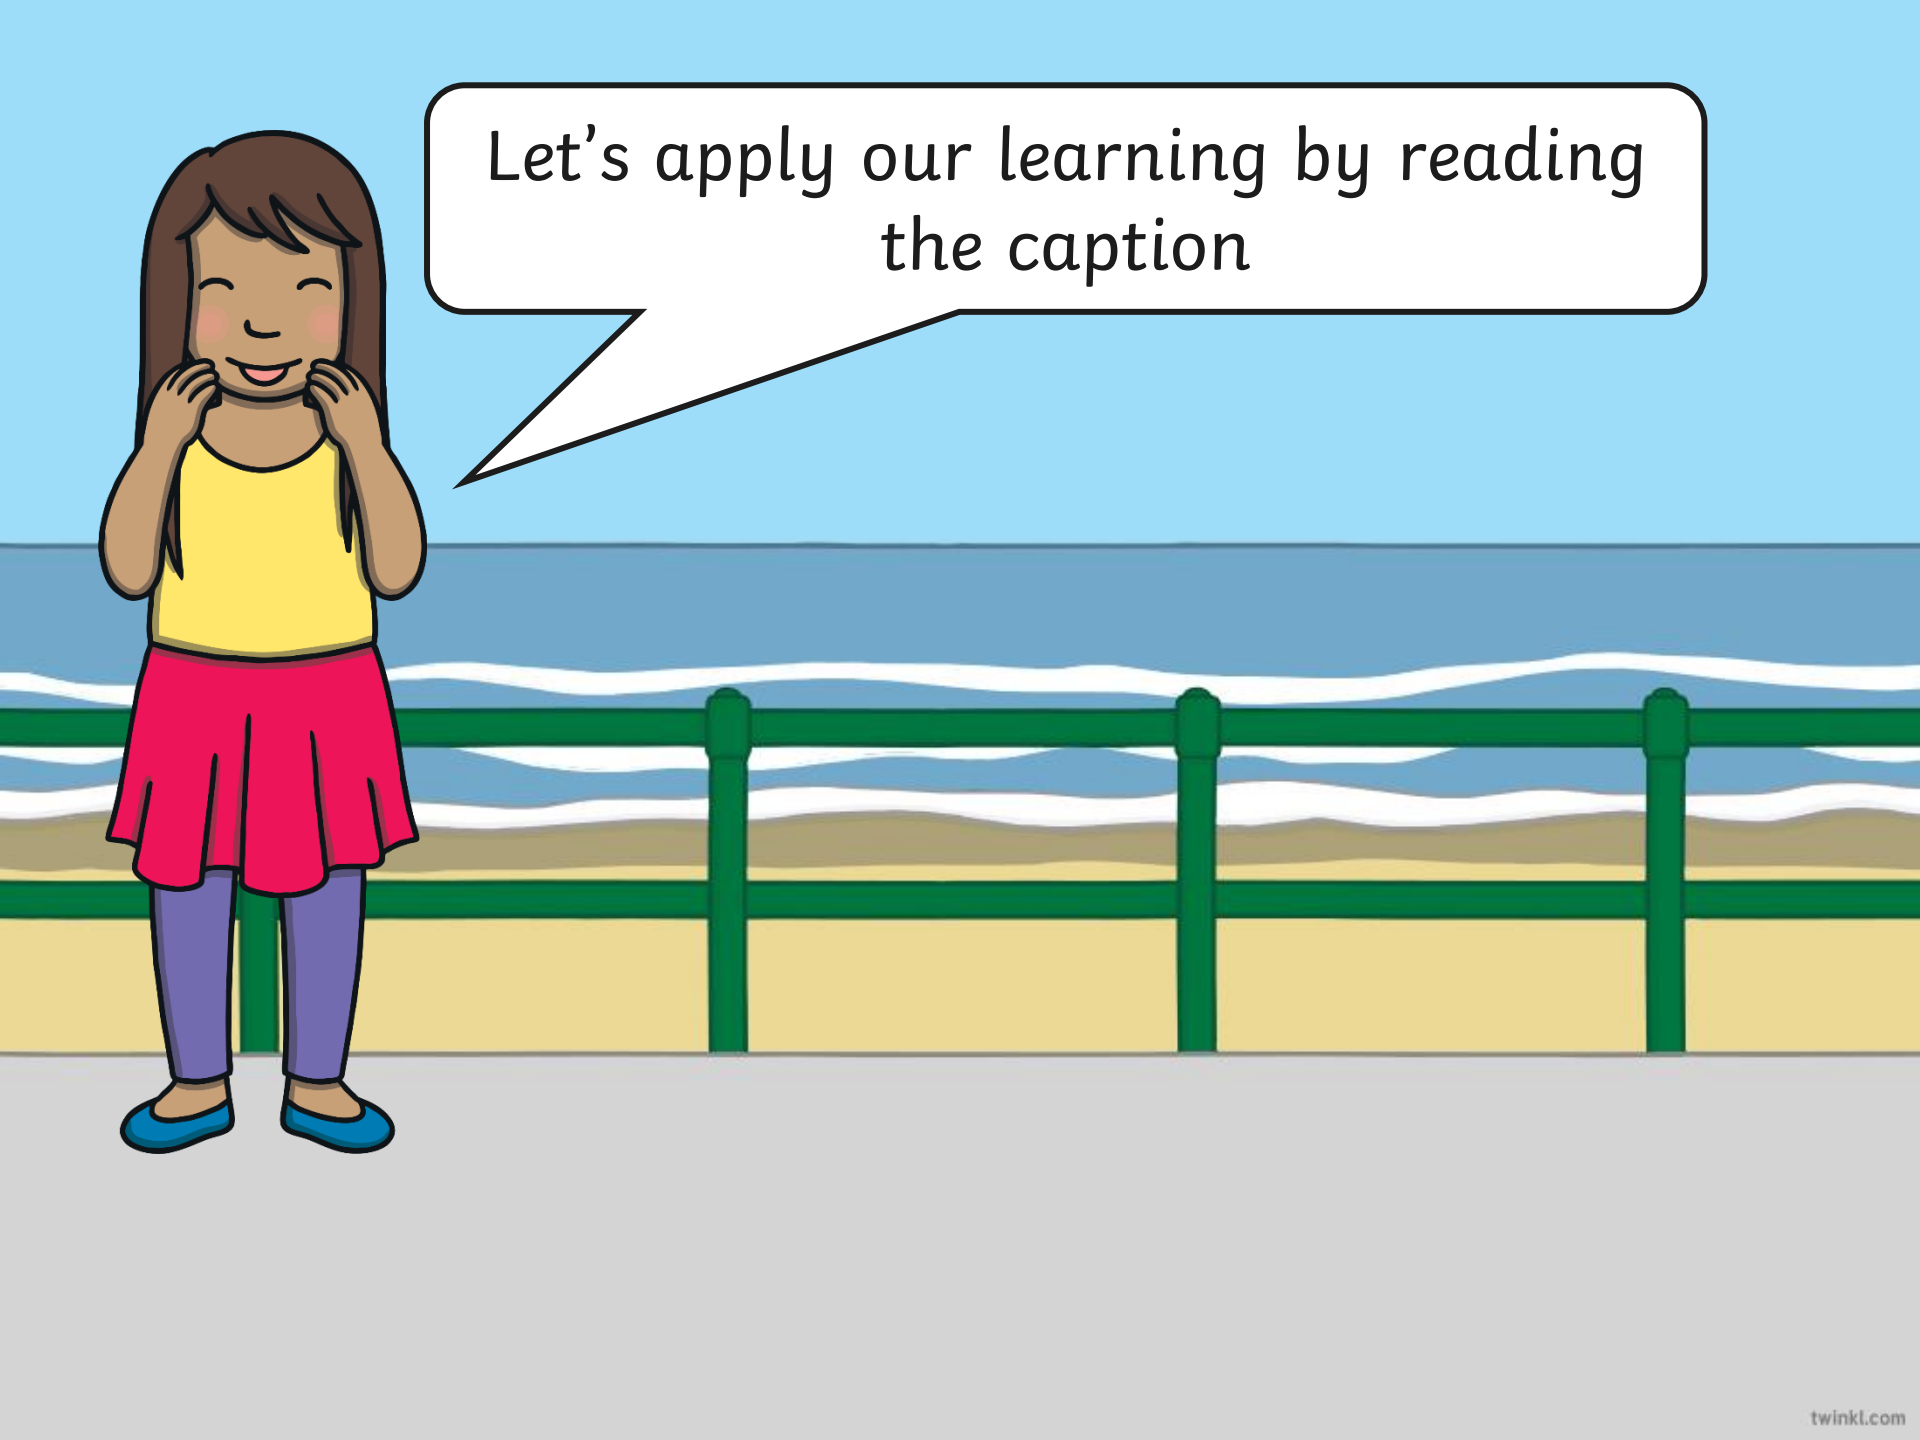

A cartoon illustration of a young girl with long brown hair, wearing a yellow tank top, a pink skirt, purple leggings, and blue shoes. She is standing on a grey path, smiling with her hands near her face. Behind her is a green metal railing. In the background, there is a sandy beach, blue waves, and a clear blue sky. A large white speech bubble with a black outline is positioned above the girl, containing the text 'Let's apply our learning by reading the caption'.

Let's apply our learning by reading the caption

to the top of the hill

Today, we have learnt...

l, ll

