One day Johnny went to visit his Grandma who was going to help him grow bigger.

Whilst at the King's palace, Johnny challenged the King's top fighter...and won!

The next day Squire took Johnny to London to see the King.

There once lived a boy called Johnny who was unhappy because he thought he wasn't big enough.

Suddenly his clothes started to rip and Johnny started to grow.

His Grandma baked him a special cake but warned him to only eat a few bites...but Johnny ate the whole cake!

Johnny returned to Lancashire and celebrated with his family and friends.
