

LO: identify prepositions.

Read the sentences and underline the prepositions. I have done an example for you.

- 1) Long, long ago, not very far from here, Johnny lived with his old mother in a little cottage, on the edge of a village.

- 2) So the next day Johnny walked out of the village, up the path and along the lane. He found his grandmother, in the woods, picking herbs to stir into her big black pot.

- 3) "Promise!" said Johnny. "And, thank you!" And he walked off down the road with the newly baked cake neatly wrapped in a napkin.

- 4) Now he could look over walls and over chimney pots. He could see for miles.

- 5) The lords and ladies were all in their finest clothes, in a beautiful garden. It was all very grand! And there seated on a big red velvet throne, was the King!
