NEW Family Learning Support service for parents who are home schooling!

From 22nd February throughout lockdown, you can ring
0776 173 0067 to access this support on:

Mon 10am - 12pm • Wed 10am - 12pm • Thu 10am - 12pm

Bolton College's Family Learning service is providing free support for parents who want advice and guidance for educating their children at home throughout the current lockdown. Our specialist qualified teachers can provide help with all aspects of primary school curriculum including Key Stage 1 and 2 maths and English. We also have an ESOL specialist available who can support parents who do not speak English as their first language.
