

Videos for early years development

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pjoyBZYk2zI>: American, focus on play. Quite a lot of explanation that would support the understanding of why play is important 8 minutes.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=93K68UIBa7w>: American, play-based interactions. Video details interactions between a nursery teacher and the children. Some good ideas for activities. 9 minutes.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=efeizNuuEo0>: British nursery video discussing interactions and their importance for relationships. Some nice clips of children cooking and playing. Although it doesn't give the ages children are older nursery children probably about 3 or 4 years old. Could give some ideas for observation methods.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=K0aHjxzDb7I>: Canadian video about language development at 3 or 4 years old. Breaks down the development of language into milestones. In the background is a boy playing with his mum. 18 minutes.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LhkS5sxtzmg>: This video of an American dad interviewing his 3 year old daughter. 3 minutes.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1mMmK-FyHds>: American/Canadian video of young boy called Daniel aged 41/2 with delayed speech development. Nice bio under the video that explains he is older now and fully verbal. Very interesting to see speech therapist in action. 5 minutes long.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nIXbHFn6Sfw>: American video used for CDE103 an American College course in which students learn to observe children's play to help plan activities. 6 minutes.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fdZJiWnxhg0&list=PLG5a7din-gklBqxwqfaq1r4mMet2Hx4Tz&index=3>: American video of focused observation of pre-schoolers. Only 3 minutes.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eJD-j2IOx30&list=PLG5a7din-gklBqxwqfaq1r4mMet2Hx4Tz&index=9>: American video of a focused observation with pre-school girls taking care of a sick doll. Its interesting as one child's first language is Spanish (which the teacher can speak), but keeps speaking in English. 4 minutes.
