

OZZIE'S NEWS – 06.12.24

WEDNESDAY'S WORD " PREPARATION " LOVE JESUS, LOVE LEARNING, LOVE EACH OTHER.

"It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas" "

SUNDAY

Well done and thank you to the staff and children who sang so well in the choir and who helped on the teddy tombola. We raised £204 for the children in Malawi. Our children will be getting an extra play when the weather improves !! Deacon Justin will be visiting us again on 18th December.

FOOTBALL

We played Nicolmere on Tuesday. Our A team lost 8-3 and our B team drew 2-2.

UKS2 MUFFINS

As part of their DT the children have made muffins and decided to sell them to raise funds for our friends in Malawi.

SANTA DASH

The whole school has taken part in the Santa Dash Daily Mile today. Look out for the pictures on X.

SINGALONG BINGO

We've had a lovely afternoon with the senior citizens of our parish today. They've been serenaded with Christmas songs by the choir and have played bingo to win hampers full of goodies. Some of our pupils served them with tea, coffee, shortbread and mince pies.

DATES TO NOTE

TUESDAY 10TH DECEMBER – wear your Christmas jumper with your uniform, it's also Christmas dinner and our Christmas fair opens from 2.45pm

THURSDAY 12TH DECEMBER

The choir will be performing at TSB Bank from 11am to 12 noon.

FOOD PANTRIES

Attached to this news is a list of all the food pantries, community cafes, grocers, food banks etc available in the Wigan borough including opening times and addresses.

Have a lovely weekend.
