

OZZIE'S NEWS – 12.07.24

WEDNESDAY'S WORD " LISTEN " LOVE JESUS, LOVE LEARNING, LOVE EACH OTHER.

YEAR 3/ YEAR 4 TRIP

The children had a fabulous time at Knowsley Safari Park on Monday. The highlight was the sea lion show!

SUMMER FAIR

The weather wasn't kind to us on Tuesday so we had to move the fair inside. Thank you to everyone who came and supported us regardless of the weather- the fair was a great success.

DEACON JUSTIN MALEWEZI

The whole school came together on Tuesday morning to listen to Deacon Justin telling us his story from being a boy in Malawi to a teacher and Deacon at Edge Hill University. He showed us the children in his village who live in poverty and how he raises money to buy food for them. Our Faith in Action group will be running some fundraising events for his village next year and we gave him a donation from school to buy food for the next month.

SATS RESULTS

We are very pleased with our results- well done to all the children. They have been on transition for 3 days this week. We're looking forward to welcoming them back on Monday.

ROCK KIDZ

We've had another fantastic day rocking with Rock Kidz on the theme of being kind and respectful to everyone.

JACK CASE CUP

Both our teams played in the competition on Friday afternoon. We were runners up- well done to all the players for a great achievement.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY
