

OZZIE'S NEWS – 16.12.22

WEDNESDAY WORD “ MARY “ LOVE JESUS, LOVE LEARNING, LOVE EACH OTHER.

CHRISTMAS CONCERTS

We've had a whole week of Christmas concerts and they've all been fabulous! The children have not been able to perform for a long time but they rose to the occasion and their singing, dancing and acting skills were amazing to see. Thank you to everyone who has supported them learning their lines, providing costumes and to the staff for their hard work to ensure our concerts are of the highest standard.

CHARITY COMPETITION

WINNERS

Well done to Zach, Matthew and Caleb who won the competition organized by Eloise, Jacob and Joseph. They raised £25.24 for Teamseas – a charity who remove plastic from the oceans. Well done.

CHRISTMAS PARTIES

Party day for everyone is on Tuesday. We are not charging for parties this year due to the cost of living crisis- school will be funding them. Children can come in their party gear but will need to have suitable shoes and outerwear for the playgrounds.

CHOIR AT THE TSB

Our choir will be singing at the TSB on Monday afternoon at 2pm for about 45 mins. Why not pop along for a listen and a mince pie ?

TOAST

Toast for the next half term is £9.00 payable on the first Monday back- 9th January.
