WEDNESDAY'S WORD " HOLIDAY " LOVE JESUS, LOVE LEARNING, LOVE EACH OTHER.

WHAT A WEEK !!

Monday – was Y5 treat day with inflatables and curious critters- lots of fun was had by all.

Tuesday – Cinderella Rockerfella, the Y6 Leavers' production was a truly magical evening with an amazing performance and super teamwork from everyone.

We also had day 1 of our Archery festival.

Wednesday- Y6 Leavers' Collective Worship was a lovely, reflective time with families and there were lots of tears when we played the memories film at the end.

We had day 2 of our archery festival- all the children have taken part and we've all seen how how talented Emelia W is with a bow and arrow !

Thursday- we held Ozzies got Talent in the morning, and what a variety of talent we have in our school ! In the afternoon we held our awards celebration assembly. Pictures are on X and the website.

Friday- the inflatables were back ! All the classes have been able to spend some time enjoying a bounce and a slide. We wish our Y6 all the best as they leave us today.

KATH

Kath has retired from making our school toast. She's helping her son with his jacket potato business and looking after her grandchildren. We made class cards and sent her off with a bouquet of flowers.

THANK YOU

Thank you from myself and all the staff for your kind words, cards and gifts- they are very much appreciated.
