

OZZIE'S NEWS – 30.06.23

WEDNESDAY'S WORD " SELFLESS " LOVE JESUS, LOVE LEARNING, LOVE EACH OTHER.

ASSEMBLIES

Thank you to the families who attended Wagtails' and Robins' assemblies this week which were on the theme of Treasures. Well done to all the children and staff.

Next week it's Sparrows' assembly on Tuesday 4th July and Eaglets' assembly on Friday 7th July – both are at 9.10 am in the school hall.

SUMMER FAIR

This is on Tuesday 4th July on the school field. Children can be collected from 2.30pm onwards to go to the fair. Children who are not collected, who walk home alone or who go to after school club will be dismissed at 3.30pm as usual. Children who go to after school club will be visiting the fair with them. Any additional tombola prizes would be gratefully received on Monday or Tuesday.

TRIPS

This week, KS1 have had an exciting day at Smithills farm and Year 6 enjoyed their Leavers' trip - they went Bowling and to Laser Quest.

FOOTBALL

Well done to our A and B teams who both beat St Wilfrid's this week. The A team won 8-2 and the B team won 15-1.

GUITAR RECITAL

Well done to the Y4 pupils and thank you to the families who came to their fabulous concert.

NEWSTARTERS

We welcomed our newstarter pupils into school this week in preparation for them beginning in September.

ALLEYWAY

Please note that the alleyway between Council Avenue and Warrington Road will be closed for the foreseeable future due to an unsafe wall. Enjoy the weekend.

The Ozzie's Way
