

Eagles' Book Blog - 23.04.21

Welcome to our first Book Blog! We will be sharing what we have been doing in class, top tips for reading and reading recommendation for different year groups.

In our class this week, we have been working on noun phrases and past perfect tenses relating to our novel: 'Kaspar Prince of Cats' by Michael Morpurgo. The book 'Kaspar the Prince of Cats' is related to the story of the Titanic which makes it even more interesting!

As a class, we are all enjoying the twists and turns in the books that we read at school. There is a big twist in 'Kaspar'! The majority of our class are enjoying our class reading book. We asked for a few peoples' perspectives and 12 people out of the 14 we asked liked this book and only 2 didn't! That's really good!

TOP TIPS FOR CHOOSING THE RIGHT BOOK FOR YOU AND FOR UNDERSTANDING THE BOOK THAT YOU ARE READING:

- Make sure to read the blurb before you start reading the book, just in case you aren't interested.
- An acronym can help with comprehension and in understanding for example in the word vipers ...

R stands for retrieve

- Read a chapter every night.

- Try new genres, you never know what you will like!
