

Robins Book Blog

24.9.21

Robins have enjoyed reading their first text, Cave Baby by Julia Donaldson. They particularly enjoyed the English lesson where they pretended to be Cave Baby and went into caves to explore the story and drew on the cave walls.

“My favourite part is when he found the paintbrush and was cheeky.”

Ivy

“My favourite part is when the Mammoth sneaks his trunk in like a snake.” - Lewis

“My favourite part is when Cave Baby paints all the patterns.” - Archie

“My favourite part is when the Hare leaps in the bushes.” – Charlie

“My favourite part is when Cave Baby painted on the walls because he got paint all over him.” - Martha

