We are going to investigate film music.

Can you imagine seeing a film without any music in it? I think it would be a lot less exciting.

What are your favourite films? Can you imagine any of the music without watching the film? That's the great thing about film music, you can listen to the music and enjoy it without needing to put on the film!

The style of music chosen for the film can affect how the film seems. Check out this clip from Lord of the Rings, it has the same visual clip with 5 different styles of music:

Which style of music did you think fitted the visual clip best? I really liked the mission impossible style and I thought the Benny Hill theme made the visual clip look quite funny!

Listen Up!

Lets listen to some famous film music, how does the music make you feel? Scared, excited, happy, sad?

This is the Jurrasic Park theme tune, composed by John Williams and played by an orchestra:
