

Policy for Relationship, Sex and Health Education (RSHE)

Leader/Co-ordinator	Mrs P Atherton
Groups involved in discussion	Headteacher RE Co-ordinator All Staff Governing Body Parents Children

"We are a learning community promoting the Gospel values of mutual, trust, care and respect"

As a school we ensure that all children and staff are treated fairly and equally. All children have equal rights to access all areas of the curriculum, regardless of race, gender and disability. Within this subject area, the SLT and all staff endeavour to provide the appropriate provision for this to occur. This policy follows guidelines and practices that are stated and outlined in St. Oswald's Equality Scheme.

Rationale

'I have come that you might have life and have it to the full'

(Jn.10.10)

Stemming from our vision of what it means to be human, we seek to educate the whole person: spiritually, intellectually, morally, emotionally, psychologically and physically towards Christian maturity. We acknowledge that Science, SEAL, PSHE and Citizenship as well as Relationships and Sex Education are all underpinned by theology of relationship and so are all encompassed in the title 'Relationships and Sex and Health Education'. In response to the exhortation of the Bishops of England and Wales we recognise our important role in Relationships and Sex and Health Education.

At St Oswald's we are involved in Relationship and Sex Education (RSE) precisely because of our Christian beliefs about God and about the human person. The belief in the unique dignity of the human person made in the image and likeness of God underpins the approach to all education in a Catholic school. Our approach to RSE therefore is rooted in the Catholic Church's teaching of the human person and presented in a positive framework of Christian ideals.

At the heart of the Christian life is the Trinity; Father, Son and Spirit in communion, united in loving relationship and embracing all people and all creation. As a consequence of the Christian belief, that we are made in the image and likeness of God, gender and sexuality are seen as God's gift, reflect God's beauty, and share in the divine creativity. RSE, therefore, will be placed firmly within the context of relationship as it is there that sexuality grows and develops.

Following the guidance of the Bishops of England and Wales and as advocated by the DFE (and the Welsh Assembly Government) RSE will be firmly embedded in the PSHE/RSHE framework as it is concerned with nurturing human wholeness and integral to the physical, spiritual, emotional, moral, social and intellectual development of pupils. It is centred on Christ's vision of being human as good news and will be positive and prudent, showing the potential for development, while enabling the dangers and risks involved to be understood and appreciated.

Purpose of Relationship, Sex and Health Education (RSHE)

'This is my commandment: love one another, as I have loved you'

(Jn.15.12)

The purpose of this Relationship, Sex and Health Education (RSHE) policy is to set out the ways in which our school's provision supports pupils through their spiritual, moral, social, emotional and physical development, and prepares them for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of life growing up in today's world. We acknowledge the need to address issues raised by the actual experiences of pupils today in the context of their Catholic Faith. We aim to provide a suitable programme that follows the statutory need to include RSHE into our curriculum from September 2020, which meets the ethos of its Catholic identity and mission.

At St Oswald's we endeavour to provide a 'positive and prudent' sexual education whilst helping to raise pupils self-esteem and help them to grow in knowledge and understanding, recognising the value of all persons and developing sensitive and caring attitudes.

Our mission embraces the spiritual, physical, intellectual, emotional, moral and social development of children and young people, and through an agreed approach to Relationship and Sex Education (RSE) using the Archdiocesan recommended resource 'Journey In' Love' (2020) we believe that we can promote the development of the whole child, so that children can grow in virtue, wisdom and stature, understanding both the emotional, social and physical aspects of growing spiritually, as well as moral aspects of relationships within a context of a Christian vision for the purpose of life.

The other aspects of the Statutory curriculum intent will be met by Come and See, DFE Statutory Relationships, Computing and Statutory Science.

The Aims

The aims of Relationship, Sex and Health Education (RSHE) at St Oswald's are to:

- Provide a framework in which sensitive discussions can take place.
- Help pupils develop feelings of dignity, self-worth, self-respect, confidence and empathy.
- Prepare pupils for puberty and give them an understanding of sexual development and the importance of health and hygiene.
- Create a positive culture around issues of sexuality and relationships.
- Teach pupils the correct vocabulary to describe themselves and their bodies.
- Help pupils develop an understanding that love is the central basis of relationships.
- Help pupils to understand the nature of relationships and to encourage them to reflect on their own relationships and respect the differences between people.
- Develop pupils' confidence in talking, listening and thinking about feelings and relationships.
- Help pupils to acquire the skills necessary to develop and sustain relationships.
- Offer sex education in the wider context of relationships.
- Ensure that pupils protect themselves and ask for help and support when needed.

- Help pupils to develop a healthier, safer lifestyle and how to manage in socially awkward situations.
- Prepare pupils to play an active role as citizens and to understand the Catholic vision of what it means to be citizens of the Kingdom/reign of God.
- That our spiritual relationship with God links together and transforms all aspects of our person.
- The basics of authentic friendships with others and God.
- Identify when confidentiality is/ is not appropriate.

Statutory Requirements

At St Oswald's Catholic Primary School, we must provide Relationships Education to all pupils as per section 34 of the Children and Social work act 2017.

In teaching Relationship and Sex Education, we must have regard to Catholic Education Service guidance issued by the Bishops Conference of England and Wales 2017.

The statutory guidance from the Department for Education issued under Section 80A of the Education Act 2002 and section 403 of the Education Act 1996.

The statutory guidance from the Department for Education Equality Act 2010.

Definition

Relationships and Sex and Health Education is lifelong learning about physical, moral and emotional development. It is about the understanding of the importance of marriage for family life, stable and loving relationships, respect, love and care. It is also about the teaching of sex, sexuality and sexual health". (DfEE 0116/2000).

Relationship, Sex and Health Education involves a combination of sharing information, and exploring issues underpinned by our Catholic values.

Relationship, Sex and Health Education (RSHE) Curriculum

We have developed our curriculum with recommendations from the Archdiocesan Education Department to ensure that they meet with Catholic Church teaching.

After consultation with parents, Relationship Sex Education will be covered using the Archdiocesan recommended resource 'Journey In Love' (2020) this includes *sexual intercourse at Year 6. (See right of withdrawal)

We have considered the age, stage and feelings of pupils and have consulted with parents and staff to ensure we are offering a quality curriculum which is adequately catered to meet their needs.

We have also adapted the PSHE Association Primary Scheme of Work and Primary toolkit to address some of the health and mental well-being objectives.

If pupils ask questions outside the scope of our curriculum, teachers will respond in an appropriate manner so they are fully informed and do not seek answers online.

Delivery of Relationship, Sex and Health Education (RSHE)

Relationship and Sex and Health Education (RSHE) is taught both discretely and within the Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE) curriculum lessons. Some aspects of the RSHE curriculum may be touched upon in other lessons as it shares links with Religious Education, Science and Physical Education.

Our RSHE curriculum will ensure that content is relevant to the age, experience and maturity of pupils.

The new statutory guidance for Relationships education focuses on teaching the fundamental building blocks and characteristics of positive relationships including:

- Families and people who care for me.
- Caring friendships.
- Respectful relationships.
- Online relationships.
- Being safe.

These areas of learning are taught within the context of 'family life' and could include married or single parent families, same sex parents, families headed by grandparents, adoptive parents, foster parents/carers amongst other structures, along with reflecting sensitively that some children may have a support structure around them (for example: looked after children or young carers).

As a school, we promote equality of opportunity and foster good relations. Our school environment uniformly applies values of inclusion and respect to all pupils and their families. All staff are proactive in promoting positive relationships and receive regular training.

Roles and Responsibility

Parents are the first educators of their children. It is their right and responsibility to inform and educate their children in matters relating to human growth and development, particularly sexual development. Our school will always work in partnership with parents and carers and the programme offered at St Oswald's will complement and not replace the role of the parents.

The Governing Body- The governing body will approve the RSHE policy and hold the headteacher to account for its implementation ensuring it follows Diocesan principles and reflects the Church's teaching.

The Headteacher- The headteacher is responsible for ensuring that RSHE is taught consistently across the school and for managing requests to withdraw pupils from the non-statutory element of Relationship and Sex Education in Year 6* (see right of withdrawal).

Staff- Staff do not have the right to opt out of teaching RSHE as this forms part of the Teaching Standards. Any staff who has concerns about teaching RSHE are encouraged to discuss this with the headteacher. Teachers will use their professional judgement when addressing issues in RSHE and careful consideration will need to be given to the inevitable, wide and varied experience and backgrounds of the pupils in the class.

Staff are responsible for:

- Delivering RSHE in a sensitive way which complies with Church teaching.
- Modelling positive attitudes to RSHE.
- Monitoring progress.
- Responding to the needs of individual pupils.
- Responding appropriately to pupils whose parents wish them to be withdrawn from the non-statutory components of RSE.

Pupils- Pupils are expected to engage fully in RSHE and, when discussing issues related to RSHE, treat others with dignity, respect and sensitivity.

Equal Opportunities

All pupils have access to the RSHE curriculum. Where pupils have specific educational needs, arrangements for support from outside agencies and support staff are made to ensure these pupils have an appropriate, differentiated curriculum.

Parents Right to Withdraw Monitoring and Review

Parents have the right to withdraw their children from the non-statutory component of sex education in Year 6. This is where sexual intercourse is taught discretely as part of the Physical aspect within 'Journey In Love' the Archdiocesan recommended resource.

It is our hope that parents would wish pupils to be involved in the schools programme of Relationships and Sex education. However, we recognise parents have the right to withdraw their children from this but not from the areas which are required by National Curriculum.

Parents with concerns are invited in the first instance, to arrange an appointment with the school to discuss these concerns and see if they can be resolved. If the matter remains unresolved, parents should make a request for withdrawal in writing and addressed to the headteacher. The headteacher will discuss the request with parents and take appropriate action.

Alternative work will be given to pupils who are withdrawn from RSE. Parents do not have the right to withdraw their children from Statutory Relationships Education as set out in the DFE guidance 2020.

Monitoring Arrangements

The delivery of RSHE is monitored by Mrs P Atherton, Miss R Silver, Miss V Lea, Mrs G Barton, Mr C Goulding and Mrs J Hassan by undertaking learning walks, staff and pupil consultations, planning and work scrutinies and questionnaires.

Pupils' development in RSHE is monitored by class teachers as part of our internal informal assessment systems. A record is kept in the teacher's planning of the delivery of RSHE.

Reporting is carried out in the Governors Annual Report to Parents and in the pupil's end of year reports under Social and Emotional Development in the general progress comment.

This policy will be agreed annually by the governors and reviewed every three years.

We are aware of the need to monitor the school's RSHE policy, and to review it regularly, so that we can take account of new initiatives and research, changes in the curriculum, developments in technology or changes to the physical environment of the school. We will therefore review this policy every year, or earlier if necessary. This policy was last up-dated in October 2020.

Links with Come and See and Relationships and Sex Education

Introduction

The following is intended as a guide for linking R.S.E. with Come and See. Some of these aspects might be covered in the Explore section where the topic is being introduced, starting with the pupil's own experience, and extending into the Reveal and Respond sections. Some ideas may be used in the Reveal process where the teaching is explicitly concerned with Scripture and the teaching of Church. Some topics offer more explicit teaching to develop ideas about EPR, some less so.

Another way of using this section is when teaching some aspects of R.S.E. which occur in Science, P.E., health education or drama etc., make use of the links with the religious education programme.
