Welcome to Eaglets' Class Book Blog. We have been reading The Rainbow Fish by Marcus Pfister during our English lessons.

The Rainbow Fish is a wonderful story with beautiful illustrations. It gives young children an insight into why it is important to share. The author uses the characters in the story to get the message across to the younger reader. Benedict said, "It is a story about sharing and how it makes us feel".

The Rainbow fish is the most beautiful fish in the ocean, who all the other fish admire, until one day he is very mean to the little blue fish. He wouldn't share his shiny scales. None of the fish would look or talk to the Rainbow fish anymore. This made him feel unhappy. He went to see the starfish who told him to go and see the Wise Octopus. The Wise Octopus told him to share his prized possessions. The Rainbow Fish didn't think he could do this until the little blue fish asked again. He shared one scale and he found that the more he shared the happier he felt. The beautifully illustrated pictures really bring the story to life.

We talked about our favourite part of the story and this is what some of the children said:-

Lara said “I liked it when the Rainbow Fish shared his scales. Everyone was happy at the end.”

Toby said “I liked it when the Octopus said the waves have told me your story.”

Alexander said “I liked it when the Wise Octopus gave the Rainbow Fish some advice.”

Benicio said “I liked it when the little Blue Fish was delighted because the Rainbow Fish had shared his scales with him.”

We also learned some new vocabulary in the story. These are some of the words we learned:

Glided

Shimmering

Possessions

Waivered

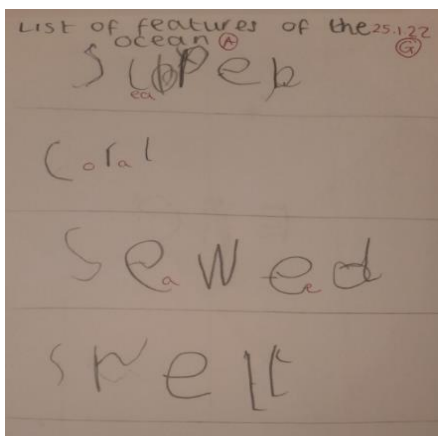

Delighted

This is some of the work that we completed related to the story.

Writing about the story

Ocean descriptions

Letter Writing

Thinking about our own Prized Possessions

Art Work

We hope that you have enjoyed our blog, Eaglets highly recommend this book for the younger reader and give it 10/10
