

Wagtail's Book Blog based on our class text 'The Journey Home' by Frann Preston-Gannon

This story is about conservation and how the world is changing around us. It is about a polar bear, panda, orang-utan and elephant who have to leave their homes due to their habitats being lost due to climate change, deforestation, and poaching.

Wagtails have loved finding out interesting facts about each of the animals in our story.

I Live in the Arctic my fur looks white but is actually transparent. I like to snare on sea ices.
Callum

Can you guess the characters we are describing?

I have wings but I can't fly.
I'm larger than your turkey at Christmas
But saddle you for exit.
Jared.

I'm larger than a cow.
I am the only mammal that can't jump and I have huge white tusks.
Miah

I love to swing through the trees with my long arms. I like to eat with my feet. I learn every thing I know from my mum.

Myles M

Sadly I'm in danger.
I am the same colour as a domino.
I love to eat bamboo.

Amelia

We have drawn pictures in response to what we have read

We wrote letters, as the animals in the story, to the world leaders at the Cop26 conference in Glasgow.

Dear Cop26 I am a panda and all my bamboo trees are gone. I have no where to live and now I am stuck in the dangerous city with no company.

From panda Madison

Dear Cop 26 all the sailors are coming. I will be extinct soon. I am very sad because all my babys have gone.

Lauren

Love from dad

Dear COP26 I'm a dodo and sailors are eating my habitat. I will be extinct soon my baby's will be gone.
I will be alone and the sailors are bringing ^{big} pets and the pets are eating my egg's, some dodo Harper

Dear COP26, All my family and eggs are being ~~eat~~ eaten. All the sailors are coming here and threatening Mauritius. I am nearly extinct and I am losing my habitat.
from Dodo
Jude

Dear COP26 I have Swam away from my home because all my ice has gone. and I have found a little, brown boat and friends. We are lost on a Island. please can you help direct cheng? from polar bear
Bella