

Save the Date!

World Book Day is Thursday 7 March.

Dear Parents and Carers,

This year World Book Day will take place on Thursday 7th March.

Our theme is 'Little People, Big Dreams' and is based on the series of books of the same name. We would like to invite the children to come to school dressed as an inspirational person from history. This could be a famous scientist, explorer, artist, activist or similar. Ideally, they could bring a book with them about their chosen person, or at least be able to tell us all about who they have chosen to come as and why they were inspired.

Some ideas include: Neil Armstrong, Albert Einstein, Florence Nightingale, Amelia Earhart, Emeline Pankhurst, Alan Turing, Nelson Mandela and Monet. We hope to inspire the children by learning about the achievements of these incredible people.
