Thank you for joining us for the Art of Maths workshops on Thursday - a total of 81 families came which is just fabulous! We know it meant so much to the children to welcome visitors into their classroom. The items created will be combined to form a Maths Cityscape on display in school. We hope you enjoyed the Maths/Art activities and will be able to join us again for future events. Thank you! Mrs H Yarnold

Preschool children enjoyed the chance to make their own snack on Monday. They chose to make pizza and showed their skills in grating cheese and spreading pizza sauce onto their pizza base. The smell of pizza was delicious, a lovely snack to start the week.

Mrs H Ranford

Story in a Jar winners are:

- Nursery: Teddy
- Reception: Lottie
- Year 1: Freddie
- Year 2: Harriet
- Year 3: Joel
- Year 4: Hollie
- Year 5: Bella
- Year 6: Daisy

World Book Day was an amazing success and the children and staff enjoyed dressing up in book character-themed costumes. One of the highlights of the day was seeing all the fabulous 'Story in a Jar' projects which had been created at home. Thank you so much, parents and carers, for all your support in everything we do – we are blown away by the children's creativity. The jars are fabulous and are on display for you to see at parents' evening next week. Mrs H Yarnold
