RE: 1. To learn about Saint Teresa of Kolkata (Calcutta) and Martin Luther King.

- Open 'The story of Blessed Teresa of Kolkata' document and answer the key questions.

2. Open the 'Martin Luther King' document and answer the key questions.

Task: Record in thought bubbles your dreams for the world.

History: Write a letter to a future monarch (king or queen) giving them advice about how to be a successful ruler. Describe the positive qualities of a good leader. Think about the positive qualities of the monarchs we have looked at in previous weeks, and write about some of these as examples:

I have a dream that one day people will no longer be poor,

e.g. military ability to protect country in war, a peaceful leader like King James I, someone who has a good relationship with parliament, a good listener, a fair and just ruler.

Science: Create an informative poster about the classification of animals using what you have learnt during the last few weeks.

PSHE: Follow the daily tasks on the PSHE – Resilience Calendar document.

We now have a dedicated wellbeing page on the school website <https://www.st-peter.bardaglea.org.uk/wellbeing>.

Mental wellbeing describes your mental state – how you are feeling and how well you can cope with day-to-day life. Consider using this page to improve your mental health and wellbeing, it has a variety of valuable resources and strategies to help everyone; adults and children.

Music: Charanga Yumu

Art: Create an artwork of a firework display fit for a king or queen! The Tudors loved fireworks, although they were a little different to the ones we see now. When Elizabeth I visited her friend Robert Dudley in 1572, she witnessed a firework display featuring a pyrotechnic dragon and fireworks shot from a cannon. This video goes into a little more detail.
