- How many words can you find beginning with the letter 'r'?
- Phonics: Use the 'Phonics Play' website – you can access free games for your children. We are working on phase 2 and 3 in school. The website is: <https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/> but it can also be accessed by typing 'phonics play' into Google. On YouTube, Mr Thorne does phonics is another particularly good website. <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize> offers a variety of phonics and literacy activities.

Writing:

Over the next three weeks we will be reading The Storm Whale. Please follow the link below.

- As a class, look at large pictures of Noi and his father on the screen. Have children discuss what the characters look like, recording specific features. Then encourage children to suggest what the characters may be thinking or feeling, recording these ideas also.
- Without sharing the illustration, read aloud 'One night a great storm raged around their house.' Ask children what it might look like if a storm was happening by the sea.

Brainstorm a list of ideas of things that might be seen/might be happening. Their actual art, or photos of their art will be put in their Literacy Books.

- Inspired by their storm photos, write a poem about the storm and illustrate it.
- Perform your poem to your family.
- Write a diary entry about the day Noi found the whale.

1. Find ART - Find some flat, smooth pebbles in your garden, in the park or at the beach. Can you paint or draw on them? Here are some examples.

2. Drama - Read this poem with an adult. Can you make actions to the poem? Can you use expression in your voice? Can you spot the words that sound the same?

There are big waves and little waves,

Green waves and blue,

Waves you can jump over,

Waves you dive thro',

Waves that rise up

Like a great water wall,

Waves that swell softly

And don't break at all,

Waves that can whisper,

Waves that can roar,

And tiny waves that run at you

Running on the shore.

By Eleanor Farjeon

shells, rope, netting, sticks, a bucket, pegs, string, a windmill etc.
