Eid for Nylah by Nizrana Farook

My book was Eid for Nylah. I would recommend this book for reception and Year 1 and 2. This book tells us everything people have to do on the celebration of Eid al-Fitr. I really enjoyed it and would definitely read it again.

Lyla (Class 10)

Measuring Me by Nicola Kent

Measuring Me is a great book. It is aimed at Nursery to Year 2 children. Measuring Me is about all the different things about people: your hair, your veins and how wonderful your body is. At the end of the book there is a measuring chart that has tin cans on and how tall some animals are so you can measure yourself. I would rate this book 5 stars because it is a well-structured book and younger children can see how tall they are. I read it to my little brother and he liked it too!

New book Recommendations

Traitors in Space by Tim Collins

This is a book where you choose your own path and crack the codes (you get to choose which page you go on and find the answer to mysteries). You travel to a distant planet but once you've finished your mission, the computer senses someone who is not supposed to be on board is. It's very interesting and it has lots of mysteries in it: Who is onboard or is it one of your crewmates or something hiding from you?

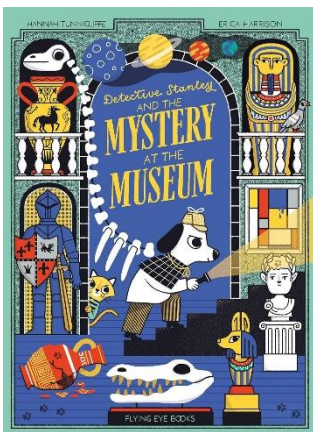

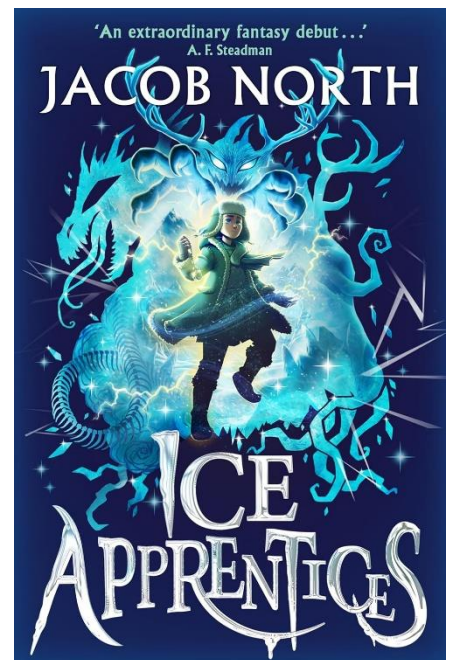

Jessica (Reading Squad) Class 9

Ice Apprentices by Jacob North

This book is about a stray boy who is taken to a school where he learns magic. But, along the way he faces challenges, such as battling beasts. The question is, will he become an Ice Apprentice? A breath-taking adventure set in a world of mighty monsters and spellbinding magic.

Oscar (Class 10)

Detective Stanley and the Mystery at the Museum by Hannah Tuncliffe

This is a great book about a raid in the art museum. The most perplexing thing about the case: Nothing has been stolen! But now Stan finds himself in a tight spot even his powers of deduction could not detect. Can he get himself out of trouble and can he solve the mystery of the Art Museum?
