EBacc (English Baccalaureate)

The English Baccalaureate (EBacc) is a set of GCSE subjects that the UK government encourages pupils to take to keep their future education and career options open. It is not a separate qualification but a way to recognise pupils who achieve a good grade in a specific combination of subjects.

GCSE FILM

COURSE OVERVIEW

This course is designed to harness your enthusiasm for film, introducing you to a diverse range of cinematic experiences. You'll study significant films from around the world, exploring their historical, cultural, and technological contexts. This course is perfect for pupils who love films and want to learn how films are made, why they're important, and how they tell stories. Plus, you'll get to create your own film scene or script; making this the perfect option choice for creative film fanatics!
