Shakespeare week

Next week we will be celebrating Shakespeare week. Children will be studying Shakespeare and there will be lots of activities including:

- Children studying Shakespeare's plays
- Drama workshop
- A whole school performance with Mrs Lucas
- University Challenge type quiz

On Thursday 14th March we will be holding a Dress up as a Shakespeare character day. Previously this has been a great success with lots of amazing costumes. Please see below for a little reminder of suggested costumes: Please do not go to any expense.

Ideas for boys' costumes

- Any King costume
- Beggar costume
- "Bottom" – donkey costume, white shirt
 - "Romeo" – trousers white shirt
 - Jester/ fool costume (clown)

Below are some ideas for boys' costumes for Tudors:

Ideas for girls' costumes

- Cleopatra
- Fairy costume
- Witch costume
- Princess costume
- Queen costume
- Maid/ servant costume

St. Patrick's Day Coffee Afternoon

Again, we will be holding our St. Patrick's Day Coffee afternoon in the Junior Hall on Friday 15th March at 2pm. There will be refreshments and entertainment and we hope you are able to join us.

Book Fair and World Book Day

What a fabulous day we had on World Book Day! Thank you for making the day such a success, the children looked amazing. We will be putting some of the photographs on the website, so please take a look.

Schools Crossing Patrol

The school is aware that there is still no school crossing patrol officer in place at the junction of Derbyshire Lane and Delamere Avenue. We have contacted Trafford Council who has asked if any parent is interested in working as a School Crossing Patrol officer to follow the link.
