

About Arts Council England

At the Arts Council we make creative things happen across the country. We support amazing places like libraries, museums, galleries and theatres. We also help amazing people to produce brilliant works of art. That includes you! We work with schools across the country to give every child the chance to be creative – from learning a musical instrument to working with local artists. We think that being creative is one of the best things that you can do – it makes you feel happy and it helps you to grow your imagination.

Parents and carers:
share what you're getting up to using #LetsCreate
