Challenge 3

1 Read the passage below.

The young Princess was very beautiful and charming, but above all she was extremely kind. She would always smile and talk happily with the people of the town who all loved her dearly. She lived with her mother and father (the King and Queen) in a huge castle where she would spend her days tending to her animals and taking care of her sick aunt. The young princess was also very generous and she would often give money and food to help the poor town folk.

- a) Is the Princess a good character or an evil character? _____
- b) Give three examples from the text to show how you know.
